Thirteen area teams advance to regionals

North Ridgeville has four representatives; Sheffield Lake, Columbia each send two

Judie Asp
The Chronicle-Telegram

NORTH RIDGEVILLE — Thirteen local teams won District Hot Stove titles Sunday at four area sites and now advance to the Spencer Regional this Saturday and Sunday, July 25-26.

Regional winners will participate in the 50th annual State Hot Stove Tournament in Alliance on Aug. 1 and 2.

North Ridgeville leads the area, sending four teams to regional play.

The Royals captured a Class H (9-10) title at North Eaton with an eight-inning 7-4 win over a determined Columbia Exclusive squad.

North Ridgeville will have two representatives in Class G (11-12) in Casteel's and Insulate Management. Hall's Towing grabbed a Class F (13-14) regional berth.

The Royals, now 20-0 in league play, broke a 4-all deadlock with three runs in the top of the eighth. Nick Carpenter provided the game-winning RBI while Roger Smith added a pair of insurance runs with a home run.

"It was a great game on both sides," said Royals coach Chris Costin.

P.J. Mahone earned the win in relief of Tim Caton and Roger Smith. Mahone faced 14 batters in four innings of work, allowing no runs and no hits while recording eight strikeouts.

Carpenter, Mahone and David Mathews had two hits apiece for North Ridgeville. Jim Waite added a triple.

Jeff Babin nailed a two-run homer for Columbia.

Insulate Management held a 10-3 lead heading into the seventh. Oberlin NACS plated four in the home half before NR managed the third out, winning 10-7.

"No, I wasn't getting nervous, but, yes, I was," said NR manager Tony Stross. "Our pitching and our defense win games for us. We also have a lot of good hitters and someone always comes up with the clutch hit."

It is Insulate's third trip to regional play in four years. The team carries a 23-1 record to Spencer this season.

Marcus Hooley earned the win, pitching the last 3⅔ innings. Hooley fanned 10, including striking out the side in the fourth and seventh innings.

"Marcus (Hooley) was awesome today," said Stross. "He had good command of his fastball and an excellent change-up."

Phillip Mook delivered a two-run homer and a pair of doubles for NR. Eric Palmieri added a home run and a double. Joe Cover, the starting pitcher, doubled.

Jordan Beard tripled for Oberlin while Gary Shannon and Brandon Metcalf ripped doubles.

Hall's, last year's state runner-up in Class G, broke open a close 5-1 game with a six-run sixth and a five-run seventh, eliminating North Olmsted Kiczek Builders 16-2.

"I wish I knew why we can't get going early in the ballgame," said Hall's manager Wayne Carter. "It's disappointing. We keep teams in games early when they shouldn't be."

Dan Machovina picked up the win, allowing two runs on one hit in six innings of work. Dan Sklenicka relieved, allowing no runs on one hit.

"Our pitchers throw strikes and that keeps us in the games. We have a good defense behind them," added Carter.

Sklenicka and Nick Russo contributed three RBIs apiece. Sklenicka had a two-run homer in the third. Super-sub Carl Jackson went 2-for-2 with one RBI. Machovina and Russo laced back-to-back triples in the seventh.

Sheffield Lake sends two into third week action — the Bandits in Class G and the Devil Rays in Class F.

Columbia also has a pair of regional participants in Gibbs Butchers Block (Class F and its Class EE (15-16) team. Gibbs scored two in the home half of the seventh for an 11-10 victory over Wellington M&M.

"This is our first regional appearance and the kids are thrilled to death," said Columbia manager Keith Lawson, whose squad improved to 17-2. "We were down 7-2 but the kids just kept plugging away."

Nick Dietrich got the job done for Gibbs on the mound and at the plate, earning the win in relief of Joe Waldecker and delivering the game-winning RBI. Dietrich also had a two-RBI double. Waldecker added a two-RBI single.

Additional area newly crowned district champs include: Olmsted Fall's Zubin (H), Lorain City Club (EE), LaGrange Weathertite (H), South Amherst Falcons (EE) and Vermilion Drug Mart (EE).

Columbia Red Wagon Farm 2004 F1 Lorain County Champions!

Third Championship

August 2004 - For the third time in five years Columbia's Red Wagon Farm Hot Stove Baseball team a.k.a. "The Green Machine" has captured a Lorain County Championship. This year at the class F1 level, (13-14 yr olds) the team went into the game with a regular season record of 16- 2 to face the undefeated Vermillion Bulldogs with 18 wins. The better team prevailed and Columbia came out with a decisive 8-2 win! The Green Machine finished the exciting season with a 20-3 overall record. Thanks go out to all who supported the team and special thanks to Cindy Janszen, the teams ace score keeper.

PARMA SUN POST

Namers ready for season

Thursday, April 17, 2008

By Mike Holzheimer
Parma Sun Post

The Holy Name baseball team is coming off a great year that saw the Green Wave capture a division crown in the North Coast League and a district championship.

A first-round regional loss last season to Notre Dame-Cathedral Latin has Don Smith's squad more than motivated and ready to make another serious post-season run this spring.

"I think we are very strong up the middle defensively," said Smith, who begins his third year as the bench boss. "We lost some good seniors from last year's team, but feel we have a good combination of returning players and those new faces who should fit in right away."

Returning to Smith's lineup in 2008 will be senior Bryce Bartch, a three-year starter in center field and a Cleveland State University recruit. Senior Danny Green will handle the catching chores and will take his baseball talents to Walsh University next year.

Other seniors who figure prominently are Andrew Nemecek (first base), Mike Novosel (third base), Ryan Amato (pitcher), Brett Reardon (second base) and pitcher Matt Ostry. Nemecek has signed a Division II letter of intent with Wheeling Jesuit for next fall, while Novosel and Amato are four and two-year varsity players respectively. Amato will also attend Walsh University for baseball next year, while Ostry returns with two years of varsity experience.

"Ryan (Amato) is our No. 1 pitcher," said Smith. "He has a really good change-up and breaking ball. His outing was outstanding against St. Edward in the first game. Ryan went seven innings and held Ed's to just three runs. We didn't hit and wound up losing the tough game, 3-2."

Junior Kurt Babin is projected as the team's No. 2 hurler with excellent control who hits the target very well. Junior Alex Gnezda is a catcher/outfielder candidate with junior Tom McCarthy (pitcher/outfielder) and junior Trevor Smith (shortstop) figuring prominently in the Holy Name plans as well.

"Offensively, we should be pretty good at the top," noted Smith. "Brett (Reardon) will lead off for us and has good speed. Trevor (Smith) is a solid contact guy in the batter's box and will hit in the second spot in the order. Alex (Gnezda) is our power guy and will bat in the third spot with Bryce (Bartch) hitting fourth. Bryce is our main supplier of power and has the whole baseball package."

Indeed. Bartch led the team in hits and runs batted in a year ago, while Green figures to round out the heart of the batting order by hitting fifth.

"The pitching will be key," said Smith, whose ballclub recorded an overall record of 17-6 last year. "We have some depth on the mound, which we didn't have last spring. When you look at us, you should see a pretty balanced team. Now, we just have to go out on the field and get it done."

Babin sure got things done by way of a 10-0 decision over North Olmsted a couple of weeks ago. The Holy Name pitcher twirled a three-hit shutout en route to the win, while Reardon had a pair of hits and two RBIs. Green added a double to the total, while Nemecek put together a two-hit game including a two-bagger.

Holy Name fell to Trinity (11-1) earlier and will travel to Archbishop Hoban for a key North Coast League game at 4:30 p.m. today.

Green Wave bounces Lions out of tournament

Posted by Mike Peticca on May 22, 2008 11:15 p.m.

<B>Holy Name 6, Orange 2</B>

Kurt Babin (5-2, 1.60 ERA), a junior right-hander, allowed one earned run on four hits in 6 innings as the Green Wave beat the Lions in Division II district semifinal in Bedford.

Reliever Tyler Bowditch came on and got the final out after Orange loaded the bases in the bottom of the seventh inning.

Holy Name will play Padua today for the district championship.

"As long as I could throw a first-pitch strike, I could follow with whatever pitch I wanted to throw," said Babin, who struck out four and walked four.

The Green Wave, coached by Don Smith, delivered 11 hits, including two each by designated hitter Andrew Nemecek, first baseman Tom McCarthy and second baseman Brett Reardon. Right fielder Alex Gnezda and catcher Danny Green both scored runs after lining leadoff triples.

Vega has Padua fans singing in their seats as Bruins beat Benedictine

Posted by Mike Peticca on May 23, 2008 12:06 p.m.

Padua pitcher Jose Vega admitted it was a bit distracting in the bottom of the seventh inning when Bruins fans started singing his first name to the timeworn tune, "Ole, Ole, Ole, Ole."

"It's tough to try not to laugh and smile," Vega said with a shy grin after he pitched a complete game in Padua's 6-3 win over Benedictine in a Division II district semifinal baseball game Thursday.

Vega could laugh all he wanted when he hopped on the team bus and teammates picked up the "Jose, Jose, Jose, Jose," refrain. The surprising Bruins have won three tournament games after going 9-13 during the regular season.

"We're having a ball," said Vega, a sophomore right-hander. "The whole year has been up and down. We've picked a great time to peak."

Padua's win over first-seeded Benedictine (21-7) helped set up today's surprising district final against the Bruins' North Coast League foe, Holy Name (10-10). Kurt Babin's superb pitching keyed Holy Name's 6-2 win over Orange (14-8) in the second game of the doubleheader at Bedford.

Vega held Benedictine to seven hits. He struck out four, walked three and stranded nine Bengals runners on base, including seven in scoring position.

The Bruins backed their young pitcher in the field — making just a first-inning error — and at bat, with nine hits.

Second baseman Pat LaGuardia and catcher Adam Dennison both had two singles. LaGuardia's hits were both bunts, and he scored in Padua's two-run third inning and in the four-run fifth that built the Bruins' lead to 6-1.

"Their small ball and speed was something we couldn't contend with," said Benedictine coach Brian Sliwinski. "LaGuardia can fly."

Padua stole seven bases, including three by third baseman Jake Wetzel and two by LaGuardia.

"We wanted to throw the kitchen sink at them, and we did," Padua coach Pete Berrios said. "We played well fundamentally — played our best game of the year."

What to watch: Don't let Holy Name's record be misleading because the Green Wave is a member of the very challenging North Coast League Blue Division and can hit because of outfielder Bryce Bartch (.485, 5 HR) and infielders Tom McCarthy (.417) and Alex Gnezda (.392). Kurt Babin (5-2, 1.47 ERA) is the mound ace. The Lions, ranked No. 16 in the coaches state poll and two-time winners over Holy Name during the regular season, are a line-drive, gap-hitting team with their best being infielders Mat Snyder (.403), Alex Toth (.371) and outfielder Nick Cappello (.395). SWC, LEL mat powers clash Friday

What can you do for an encore following a weekend of high school wrestling which saw Rocky River edge North Olmsted and St. Joseph defeat St. Edward in two of the most exciting matches in recent years?

For starters, the Lake Erie League title should be decided Friday night when Brush travels to Garfield for a 7:30 p.m. battle. At the same time Bay Village visits Fairview to see who will remain undefeated in the Southwestern Conference.

An important independent battle will take place Friday as Orange hosts undefeated Nordonia. Saturday night John Marshall, second ranked in The Plain Dealer mat poll, faces a stiff challenge from visiting St. Edward.

Brush is 4-0 in the LEL and 5-1-1 overall while Garfield, recovering from a slow start, is 3-0-1 in league action and 3-2-1 overall.

Both teams appear to be strong and weak in the same weight classes, which calls for an even match — at least on paper.

Brush coach Buddy Young has four reliable winners in Bill Kingzett (126), Paul Silla (145), Tom Koren (175) and Bruce Gregory (185). The first three are juniors.

Garfield coach Pat Palumbo has a murderers row of upperweights in Dave Lea (167), Jim Dombos (175), Brion Svoboda (185) and 310-pound heavyweight Darrell Sargent, plus good middleweights in Maurice Stewart (132) and Stan Garey (145).

An indication of how strong the Bulldog upperweights are can be found in the Garfield-Parma match

Brush jumped out to a 24-0 lead after the first five bouts, but Garfield won, 37-24.

Orange, 3-1 on the season, will host Nordonia, which is 5-0.

Lion coach Nick Milkovich has his best team ever. Milkovich's stalwarts are Tony Constantino (98), Dan Musgrave (119), Ron Wyzynski (126), Blair Shwedo (138), Gary Milkovich (167), Tim Muzzio (175) and heavyweight Rob Zagara. They've combined for an impressive 53-6-3 record.

Among the notable Nordonia wrestlers coached by Gary Watters are Kenston Tournament champions Larry Anzivine (112), Jim Robinson (167) and Gary Skelley (185). Tony Costner (119) and Roy Grubaugh (175) were runners-up.

John Marshall has won 44 straight dual meets, and Lawyer coach Gene Gibbons won his 200th dual meet last Thursday, but the second ranked Lawyers will have their hands full with St. Edward.

Gibbons will be relying on Plain Dealer All-Scholastic Hollis Frierson (126), Dane Babin (98) and brother Scott (132), Mike Jones (112) and Rick Shannon (175).

St. Edward coach Howard Ferguson is looking for his young team to rebound after the close 27-19 loss to rival St. Joseph on Saturday.

"I don't like to lose," said Ferguson, "and that isn't so much because it's just a wrestling match, but because to me defeat means failure to reach your goal.

"The trouble in life today -- in business as well as in sports -- is that too many people are afraid of competition," he added. "The result is that many people sneer at success if it costs hard work, training and sacrifice."

Hard work helped Rocky River upset North Olmsted, 26-25, Friday night. "And we're a team that needed confidence," smiled assistant coach Clyde Simpson, filling in for head coach Jerry Olsen who is recuperating from a heart ailment.

Prior to the meet, Coach Simpson himself wasn't exactly bubbling with overconfidence. "I thought we might get shut out. North Olmsted is strong where we're strong — and weak where we're weak. We could have lost every match."

Marshall's mat team triumphs

John Marshall mat coach Gene Gibbons planned some surprises for St. Edward, but found he didn't need them as his Lawyers downed the Eagles, 27-20, Saturday night at Marshall.

Gibbons dropped two-time Plain Dealer All-Scholastic choice Hollis Frierson to 119 pounds to meet St. Edward ace Tim Welch, but the latter couldn't make weight and the big bout never materialized.

Frierson did get the undefeated Lawyers, second ranked in the PD mat poll, rolling with a fall in 3:25. Marshall trailed after the first three weight classes, 9-0.

"Hollis' pin sparked the whole team," said Gibbons. "I had a sinking feeling after losing the first three matches. He gave us a big lift."

The Lawyers' Joe DeLuca (126) then won what Gibbons called the key match of the night when he edged Gene Lavelle, 2-1. DeLuca's older brother Pete was a state runnerup at 132 two years ago.

"Joe finally looked like Pete tonight," smiled Gibbons. "It was one of the most important matches he'll ever win for us."

Gibbons' other surprise was dropping Rick Shannon to 167 pounds, and he responded with a pin at the expense of Joe Elinsky in 3:09.

The Lawyers also had a clutch victory from Mark Helderman at 155 pounds. Helderman, a transfer student from St. Edward, decisioned Chris Dempsey, 6-3.

St. Ed's coach Howard Ferguson was also without the services of John McNulty (105), who, like Welch, had failed to make weight.

Richmond Heights won its third straight match in the East Suburban League by whipping Kirtland, 46-12.

The Spartans, perennial ESL champions, rode the victory tide via pins from Ron Bendes (98), two-time state champion Jim Hanson (112), Bob Majer (126), Jim Sciaulino (119) and heavyweight Ken Loushin.

Richmond is now 5-2. An independent struggle saw Collinwood come from behind to down University School, 28-21.

Senate, Cuyahoga league tourneys head mat action

The Senate Tournament, in its seventh year, has been dominated by the second-ranked Lawyers. Only John Adams has broken into the top slot among city schools, and that was in the tournament's initial year.

Two league tournaments and three important dual meets highlight a heavy weekend of high school wrestling action.

John Marshall will be gunning for its sixth Senate Tournament title in a row at South High, while Warrensville will defend its Cuyahoga Conference Tourney crown at Strongsville.

Key dual meets on Friday night pit Brush at Lakewood, Eastlake North at Maple Heights and Bay Village at North Olmsted.

Three reigning champions are back at different weights. Two are from John Marshall— Mike Jones (112) and Hollis Frierson (119)— while the third is Carl Dooley (145) from Lincoln West.

Besides Jones and Frierson, Lawyer coach Gene Gibbons has proven winners in Dana Babin (98), Joe DeLuca (126), Scott Babin (132), Dennis Ryan (138), Rick Shannon (167 or 175) and Frank Pivik (185).

St. Ignatius has improved every year under coach Mike Setta, and the Wildcats will be counting on important points from Jim Coyne (138), John Murray (145), Owen Ginley (167), Bob Petrus (185) and heavyweight Jim Gallaher to keep John Marshall from turning the tournament into a rout.

Marshall matmen grab Senate lead

To nobody's surprise, John Marshall is leading the seventh annual Senate Wrestling Tournament going into this afternoon's semifinal round at South High.

The Lawyers, ranked no. 2 in The Plain Dealer mat poll, have 33½ points and 11 wrestlers remaining in the winner's bracket. St. Ignatius is second with 23 points and eight wrestlers left, while John F. Kennedy is third at 22½ points and eight left.

The power of the pin prevailed at Friday's opening rounds. No less than eight matmen pinned their first two foes.

Most impressive of the group was John McCafferty (155) of West Tech, who had falls in lightening quick times of 30 and 37 seconds.

Also recording a pair of pins were Paul Polace (105) of South, Donny Page (112) of East High, William Jones (126) of John F. Kennedy, Carl Dooley (145) of Lincoln West, Mark Durana (126) of Rhodes, Rick Shannon (167) of John Marshall, and Jeff Anger (185) and Alex Rychlik (HVY) of Collinwood.

The biggest upset of the night took place at 98 pounds, when South's Mark Sowden handed top-seeded Fred Mahnke of Rhodes an 11-9 setback.

Only three bouts went into overtime, but one proved costly to St. Ignatius' title hopes when Ed Gakanas of Collinwood edged Jim Coyne, 3-2.

Lakewood, St. Ed lead in wrestling

Lakewood High and St. Edward are the surprise leaders in the John Marshall Class AAA sectional wrestling tournament entering today's semi-final action. Marshall, the favorite, is sixth.

Lakewood has 25½ points with eight boys left and the Eagles total 20 points with seven left. Marshall has only 16½ points, but five strong wrestlers remaining.

St. Edward ace heavyweight Tom Cousineau set a record when he pinned his foe in 17 seconds, breaking the previous standard of 19 seconds. Cousineau, who was second in the state last year, also had a fall in his other match.

Marshall's Hollis Frierson (119), fourth in Ohio a year ago and third as a sophomore, also had a pair of pins.

Three-team race builds at Marshall

A three team race for the Class AAA sectional wrestling tournament at John Marshall loomed after Saturday's semifinal round.

Lakewood was leading with 63½ points and six grapplers who qualified for next week's district at Baldwin-Wallace. St. Edward was right behind with 61½ points and seven qualifiers, while host John Marshall was third with 60½ points and six qualifiers.

Three wrestlers had three pins going into the finals— Mike Mahoney (112) of Rocky River, John Maksym (175) of Rhodes and heavyweight Tom Cousineau of St. Ed.

Maksym was a surprise. He was trailing Rich Kalski of Parma, 17-0, after two periods in their semifinal battle when he registered his fall.

Rocky River's George Werling, a Southwestern Conference champ, stunned Parma's Tony Arlia in the semi's with a fall in 5:57. Arlia was a Brecksville Tournament titlist in December.

Another SWC champion from Rocky River, Mike Deane (105), was edged by Cuyahoga Conference runner-up Rich Baldizzi, 1-0, in the semi's.

St. Edward coach Howard Ferguson was delighted with his team's showing after recent disappointments in dual meets.

"We always had four weak weights, and then we had a rash of injuries," explained Ferguson. "Our trouble was we had only ninth graders to fill in.

"But you wait and see how well we do in future years," said Ferguson. "We're not too bad now."

John Marshall stormed from sixth place on Friday to third with a strong afternoon of wrestling.

"We had too many first round byes," said Lawyer assistant coach Ed Haller. "That put us in a deep hole, and it's not easy trying to catch Lakewood and St. Ed when you're as far back as we were."

HOW THEY STAND

Lakewood 63½ (6 district qualifiers), St. Edward 61½ (7), John Marshall 60½ (6), Strongsville 52½ (5), Rhodes 43 (4), Rocky River 42½ (4), Normandy 38 (4), Padua 37 (4), St. Ignatius 34½ (2), North Royalton 26½ (2), West Tech 26 (4), Parma 21 (1), Brecksville 18 (2), Lincoln West 15½ (1), East Tech 2, Max Hayes 0.

Richie roars to victory in Scout car race

Richie Eswine, son of Mr.and Mrs. Tom Eswine, of 161 South Leavitt Rd., Amherst, took first place overall in Cub Scout Pack 494's annual Pinewood Derby last week at Powers School.

In this scaled-down version of the Soap Box Derby Scouts raced model cars down a six-lane 25-foot-long wooden track set up in the school gymnasium.

Brian Siegmund, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Siegmund, Long Street, Amherst, placed second in overall competition while Jack Cochrane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cochrane, of 521 Shadylawn, Amherst, was third.

Councilman Diane Eswine's son also placed first in Den 1 competition. Stephen Szucs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Szucs, of 6401 Baldwin Blvd., Lorain, earned second place, while Jordan Rush, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rob Rush, Spruce Tree Lane, Amherst, placed third.

Den 3 winners were: first, Chaz Zvosec, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zvosec, Middle Ridge Rd., Lorain; second, John Agostinelli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mrak Agostinelli, Hidden Valley Dr., Amherst; and third, Peter Khoury, son of Kris Khoury, Church St., Amherst.

Siegmund was followed in Webelos competition by Billy Fuqua, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fuqua, 704 Lincoln St., Amherst, and Paul Busick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Busick, Edgewood Dr., Amherst

Each of the 20 boys who participated received a blue ribbon.

SWC, LEL mat powers clash Friday

What can you do for an encore following a weekend of high school wrestling which saw Rocky River edge North Olmsted and St. Joseph defeat St. Edward in two of the most exciting matches in recent years?

For starters, the Lake Erie League title should be decided Friday night when Brush travels to Garfield for a 7:30 p.m. battle. At the same time Bay Village visits Fairview to see who will remain undefeated in the Southwestern Conference.

An important independent battle will take place Friday as Orange hosts undefeated Nordonia. Saturday night John Marshall, second ranked in The Plain Dealer mat poll, faces a stiff challenge from visiting St. Edward.

Brush is 4-0 in the LEL and 5-1-1 overall while Garfield, recovering from a slow start, is 3-0-1 in league action and 3-2-1 overall.

Both teams appear to be strong and weak in the same weight classes, which calls for an even match — at least on paper.

Brush coach Buddy Young has four reliable winners in Bill Kingzett (126), Paul Silla (145), Tom Koren (175) and Bruce Gregory (185). The first three are juniors.

Garfield coach Pat Palumbo has a murderers row of upperweights in Dave Lea (167), Jim Dombos (175), Brion Svoboda (185) and 310-pound heavyweight Darrell Sargent, plus good middleweights in Maurice Stewart (132) and Stan Garey (145).

An indication of how strong the Bulldog upperweights are can be found in the Garfield-Parma match

24. John F. Kennedy	4-2
25. St. Ignatius	4-2

Brush jumped out to a 24-0 lead after the first five bouts, but Garfield won, 37-24.

Orange, 3-1 on the season, will host Nordonia, which is 5-0.

Lion coach Nick Milkovich has his best team ever. Milkovich's stalwarts are Tony Constantino (98), Dan Musgrave (119), Ron Wyzynski (126), Blair Shwedo (138), Gary Milkovich (167), Tim Muzzio (175) and heavyweight Rob Zagara. They've combined for an impressive 53-6-3 record.

Among the notable Nordonia wrestlers coached by Gary Watters are Kenston Tournament champions Larry Anzivine (112), Jim Robinson (167) and Gary Skelley (185). Tony Codner (119) and Roy Grubaugh (175) were runners-up.

John Marshall has won 44 straight dual meets, and Lawyer coach Gene Gibbons won his 200th dual meet last Thursday, but the second ranked Lawyers will have their hands full with St. Edward.

Gibbons will be relying on Plain Dealer All-Scholastic Hollis Frierson (126), Dane Babin (98) and brother Scott (132), Mike Jones (112) and Rick Shannon (175).

St. Edward coach Howard Ferguson is looking for his young team to rebound after the close 27-19 loss to rival St. Joseph on Saturday.

"I don't like to lose," said Ferguson, "and that isn't so much because it's just a wrestling match, but because to me defeat means failure to reach your goal.

"The trouble in life today -- in business as well as in sports -- is that too many people are afraid of competition," he added. "The result is that many people sneer at success if it costs hard work, training and sacrifice."

Hard work helped Rocky River upset North Olmsted, 26-25, Friday night. "And we're a team that needed confidence," smiled assistant coach Clyde Simpson, filling in for head coach Jerry Olsen who is recuperating from a heart ailment.

Prior to the meet, Coach Simpson himself wasn't exactly bubbling with overconfidence. "I thought we might get shut out. North Olmsted is strong where we're strong — and weak where we're weak. We could have lost every match."

Marshall's mat team triumphs

John Marshall mat coach Gene Gibbons planned some surprises for St. Edward, but found he didn't need them as his Lawyers downed the Eagles, 27-20, Saturday night at Marshall.

Gibbons dropped two-time Plain Dealer All-Scholastic choice Hollis Frierson to 119 pounds to meet St. Edward ace Tim Welch, but the latter couldn't make weight and the big bout never materialized.

Frierson did get the undefeated Lawyers, second ranked in the PD mat poll, rolling with a fall in 3:25. Marshall trailed after the first three weight classes, 9-0.

"Hollis' pin sparked the whole team," said Gibbons. "I had a sinking feeling after losing the first three matches. He gave us a big lift."

The Lawyers' Joe DeLuca (126) then won what Gibbons called the key match of the night when he edged Gene Lavelle, 2-1. DeLuca's older brother Pete was a state runnerup at 132 two years ago.

"Joe finally looked like Pete tonight," smiled Gibbons. "It was one of the most important matches he'll ever win for us."

Gibbons' other surprise was dropping Rick Shannon to 167 pounds, and he responded with a pin at the expense of Joe Elinsky in 3:09.

The Lawyers also had a clutch victory from Mark Helderman at 155 pounds. Helderman, a transfer student from St. Edward, decisioned Chris Dempsey, 6-3.

St. Ed's coach Howard Ferguson was also without the services of John McNulty (105), who, like Welch, had failed to make weight.

Richmond Heights won its third straight match in the East Suburban League by whipping Kirtland, 46-12.

The Spartans, perennial ESL champions, rode the victory tide via pins from Ron Bendes (98), two-time state champion Jim Hanson (112), Bob Majer (126), Jim Sciaulino (119) and heavyweight Ken Loushin.

Richmond is now 5-2. An independent struggle saw Collinwood come from behind to down University School, 28-21.

Senate, Cuyahoga league tourneys head mat action

The Senate Tournament, in its seventh year, has been dominated by the second-ranked Lawyers. Only John Adams has broken into the top slot among city schools, and that was in the tournament's initial year.

Two league tournaments and three important dual meets highlight a heavy weekend of high school wrestling action.

John Marshall will be gunning for its sixth Senate Tournament title in a row at South High, while Warrensville will defend its Cuyahoga Conference Tourney crown at Strongsville.

Key dual meets on Friday night pit Brush at Lakewood, Eastlake North at Maple Heights and Bay Village at North Olmsted.

Three reigning champions are back at different weights. Two are from John Marshall— Mike Jones (112) and Hollis Frierson (119)— while the third is Carl Dooley (145) from Lincoln West.

Besides Jones and Frierson, Lawyer coach Gene Gibbons has proven winners in Dana Babin (98), Joe DeLuca (126), Scott Babin (132), Dennis Ryan (138), Rick Shannon (167 or 175) and Frank Pivik (185).

St. Ignatius has improved every year under coach Mike Setta, and the Wildcats will be counting on important points from Jim Coyne (138), John Murray (145), Owen Ginley (167), Bob Petrus (185) and heavyweight Jim Gallaher to keep John Marshall from turning the tournament into a rout.

Marshall matmen grab Senate lead

To nobody's surprise, John Marshall is leading the seventh annual Senate Wrestling Tournament going into this afternoon's semifinal round at South High.

The Lawyers, ranked no. 2 in The Plain Dealer mat poll, have 33½ points and 11 wrestlers remaining in the winner's bracket. St. Ignatius is second with 23 points and eight wrestlers left, while John F. Kennedy is third at 22½ points and eight left.

The power of the pin prevailed at Friday's opening rounds. No less than eight matmen pinned their first two foes.

Most impressive of the group was John McCafferty (155) of West Tech, who had falls in lightening quick times of 30 and 37 seconds.

Also recording a pair of pins were Paul Polace (105) of South, Donny Page (112) of East High, William Jones (126) of John F. Kennedy, Carl Dooley (145) of Lincoln West, Mark Durana (126) of Rhodes, Rick Shannon (167) of John Marshall, and Jeff Anger (185) and Alex Rychlik (HVY) of Collinwood.

The biggest upset of the night took place at 98 pounds, when South's Mark Sowden handed top-seeded Fred Mahnke of Rhodes an 11-9 setback.

Only three bouts went into overtime, but one proved costly to St. Ignatius' title hopes when Ed Gakanas of Collinwood edged Jim Coyne, 3-2.

Columbia still on right track

Watergate is a thing of the past.

The first 20 years of Columbia High football, also, has past. Thank goodness for both.

Columbia compiled a 45-125 football record in its first 20 seasons for a meager .265 winning percentage. Up until 1974, the Raiders hadn't won beans, let alone many games.

Columbia Roster

Ends — Wayne Wood, 155, jr., Al Drumms, 150, so., Brian Mace, 160, so., Cliff Allen, 180, sr

Tackles — Joe Smith, 160, sr., Curt Justice, 160, sr., Chuck Hollam, 150, sr., Mike Yanke, 150, so., Harry Lawrence, 220, sr., Mitch Babin, 160, so., Mitch Skowronsky, 150, so.

Centers — Bob Serina, 155, jr., Rick Warren, 160, so

Quarterbacks — Scott Shirley, 155, sr., Clay Johnson, 150, jr

Running Backs — Andy Gaur, 130, so., Ed Hollan, 140, jr., Mark McDaniels, 130, so., Dan Troglin, 150, so., Ron Cuthbert, 130, so., Roger Yost, 170, sr., Bruce Dietrich, 160, so., Bob White, 160, jr., Jim Stevens, 160, so., Craig Ross, 160, sr

Safeties — Dave Hanchey, 140, sr., Paul Hyde, 150, so., Bob Crigger, 140, sr., Dana Babin, 150, sr., Pat Mangan, 170, jr.

BUT, THINGS have changed. In 1974, nine victories. Last year, seven more. This year, Columbia's first championship?

It's possible. For the third straight year, the Raiders are legitimate Inland Conference title contenders. And if Columbia DOES win its first league crown, it'll be coach Rick Kunkle's first one, too.

This is Kunkle's initial high school head coaching test.

"I'm new to coaching in this area, but our coaches seem to think that Buckeye and Firelands will be the teams we'll have to beat," Kunkle said during yesteday's morning workouts.

"We have 12 good seniors, excellent leadership and fine strength in the offensive backfield," he said. "But the biggest question is how quickly the kids will adjust to a new system."

Last year, Columbia ran the Power-I offense and used a 6-2 defense.

Under the new head coach Kunkle, the Raiders will shift with a two tight end attack, while going with a 5-3 defense.

"WE LACK depth and speed, but we have size," Kunkle said. "Our best size is in the backfield though, not on the line."

Heading the Raiders attack are quarterback Scott Shirley, and backs Roger Yost and Craig Ross — all seasoned starters.

"Yost could be tough to stop if he gets going," Rick noted. "The best thing about this team is their good attitude and excellent discipline."

Kunkle is getting a slow start because he was hired just two weeks ago. However, he quickly noted a few tough performers who'll snatch starting roles.

THE COACH likes tackle Joe Smith, center Bob Serina and guard Scott Pick Smith, who may play both ways, will be joined on defense by middle linebacker Cliff Allen.

Fifteen lettermen return, but much of the 39-man squad consists of underclassmen. But with a low number of key injuries, Columbia should continue its current two-year trend of playing winning football.

Kunkle is assisted by Tom Fragasse, Jim Waldecker, Chuck Rimer and Ed Bak.

Brooklyn dumps Columbia, 22-7

By ROBIN INNES
C-T Sports Writer

BROOKLYN — The Brooklyn Hurricanes completely dominated the Columbia Raiders in the second half to gain a 22-7 victory in an independent football game last night.

The game, which was rescheduled for last night after being rained out on Friday, was a defensive struggle in the first half, with the Raiders leading 7-0.

IN THE FIRST half, the Raiders managed only 35 yards on offense, compared to Brooklyn's 90. The Raiders earned two first downs while the Hurricanes had five.

But the Hurricanes came alive in the second half. They took the second - half kickoff and marched 66 yards in 11 plays with Larry Maglione going the last yard for the score. Rick Trocano passed to Bill Eiben for the two-point conversion, and the Hurricanes never trailed again.

Brooklyn wrapped up its second victory of the year with two scores in the last quarter. Reno Oradini scored on a six yard run while Maglione scored his second touchdown of the night, this one from nine yards out.

RAIDER COACH Rick Kunkle saw some good points in his team's defeat. "I am proud of my kids. They stuck it out against a fine football team.

"We didn't move the ball well, but we played our best defense of the year," Kunkle said.

Brooklyn's coach Jerry Younger credited changes in the second half for the victory "We made adjustments at halftime on alignment and play-calling and they worked." Younger said.

"Columbia has a tough football team. We knew they like to rush the punter, and we were ready for them and they still blocked the kick." Younger praised.

That blocked punt set up Columbia's only score of the night. In the first quarter, Dana Babin blocked the kick and Bob White picked up the ball and raced to the Hurricanes' 14 yard line.

Four plays later, Roger Yost scored from one yard out to give the Raiders a temporary lead.

Wolverines anxious to get another taste of victory

Elyria West must have liked the taste of last Saturday's victory because the Wolverines are eager to try for another helping.

They'll get their chance tomorrow night against a 3-4 Columbia team.

West hasn't exactly compiled a super record either, going 2-3-1 to date, but coach Bill Hewitt's squad landed a haymaker on Margaretta in their last outing, 53-0.

The offense, barely visible for four games, rushed for more than 400 yards, led by Greg Jones and Robert Woolbright.

Having sophomore Jim Smola at quarterback helped, too.

"We just executed," Hewitt said of the Margaretta game. "The execution of the line was great. They stayed with their blocks and the backs hit the hole. We eliminated our mistakes. That's what we'd been looking for.

"Our backs hit the hole quicker, too. Smola gets to the hole quickly (for the handoff) and that's speeded up our whole offense.

"The kids are high — coming off a victory like that," Hewitt added. "They can't wait until Saturday. Maybe this is a sign of things to come. Teams are not going to be able to key Jones. We've got good running balance and we're working on our passing. Jim has a good arm."

RECORDS

Elyria West (2-3-1)	Columbia (3-4-0)
Oberlin, 23-18	Edison 13-14
Avon Lake, 6-22	Brooklyn, 7-22
Port Clinton, 0-6	South Amherst, 22-7
Huron, 0-6	Firelands, 7-24
Clyde, 8-8	Keystone, 19-0
Margaretta, 53-0	Avon, 7-13
	Buckeye, 6-2

HEWITT IS NOT looking past Columbia, a team with good personnel.

"We're back on the right track now and we're taking our games one at a time," Hewitt said. "Columbia is about our size. They're quick and have a good quarterback (Scott Shirley). He has a very quick release and he's a good runner."

Columbia showed a single wing offense along with its regular T against Keystone a couple of weeks ago, so West has an extra offense to try to defense.

"Sometimes a coach will do that to give other teams something to worry about," Hewitt said. "I don't know if that's the case here, but we're preparing for it. I think we'll be ready for it."

The Raiders have an excellent back in Roger Yost who has scored seven touchdowns, is averaging five yards a carry and is the team's leading receiver.

Craig Ross and Bob White, who share the other running back post, have each run for 200 yards so far, but coach Rich Kunkle is still concerned about his team's offense.

"We've settled down a bit and our defense has really come on since the Firelands game," he said. "But we have to score more than we have been. We've only had two touchdowns in the last two games."

Fumbles have plagued the Raiders the past two weeks. They've had seven of them and lost six. The only one they recovered was for a safety in last week's 6-2 win over Buckeye.

Defensively, Columbia will have its hands full trying to contain Jones who ran for 191 yards last week and is over 800 yards for the season.

COLUMBIA STATION — Nothing can replce success on the field to make an awards banquet enjoyable, and that was the case with each team represented at Columbia High School's Fall Sports Banquet at the school cafeteria last night.

The varsity football, freshman football, varsity girls volleyball and varsity golf squads all had winning records in either conference or in overall competition.

Raider football coach Rick Kunkle's squad was 4-2 in the Inland Conference, good for third place. Despite losing its first two games, the team ended with a 4-6 overall mark and had a shot at a .500 season going into the final game.

ROGER YOST

ROGER YOST, Columbia's senior halfback, was named the team's Most Valuable Player. Yost led the Inland Conference in scoring with 52 points while rushing for 870 yards and catching 23 passes.

Other special award winners were Bob Serina, the True Grit Award; Harry Lawrence, Most Improved Player; and Craig Ross, Most Underrated Player. All special awards were by vote of the players.

Another award was presented to Inland Conference first-team members Yost, Cliff Allen and Scott Shirley. The three were then joined by Joe Smith for the co-captain awards

Kunkle, in turn, was presented with a large plaque from the team, with smaller plaques going to assistant coaches Jim Waldecker and Tom Fragasse.

KUNKLE HAD special praise for his assistant coaches — Waldecker, Fragasse, Ed Bak and Chuck Reimer. He also cited the support of Superintendent Dr. Donald Hagen, Principal John Breese, Booster Club President Fred Shirley and trainer Hank Gaughan. The support helped Kunkle, who is in his first year as Columbia's head coach.

Bak and Reimer made awards to the freshman team, which finished 4-1 in the conference and 4-3 overall.

Freshman cheerleading numerals were presented by Miss Carol Mayer and varsity cheerleading awards were presented by Miss Cindy Chemlik.

Three special awards were voted by teammates to members of Columbia's varsity volleyball team, which finished with an 8-5 record. Connie Patton was named Most Valuable Player while Cheryl Holmes won the Spiking Award and Diane Gosselin received the Best Server Award. Awards were made by coach Joan Needham, who predicted another good season next year from her young team.

GOLF AWARDS were presented by coach Bob Roberts. Roberts' team finished with a 5-4-1 mark. Bob Abbey was toastmaster.

Panther grapplers in Columbia Invite

COLUMBIA STATION — Elyria Catholic is expected to battle the host school for top honors in the ninth annual Columbia Invitational Wrestling Tournament. which gets underway with first round action at 10 a.m. tomorrow. The second round is slated to begin at 1 p.m. with the finals scheduled for 7:30 tomorrow night.

Elyria Catholic edged Columbia. 33-26. as part of a season-opening double dual meet. Both EC coach Dan Hornbeek and Columbia boss Tom Fragasse were still uncertain about which wrestlers would grapple in which class. All that has changed now. Most of both teams' lineups are fairly settled.

JOINING COLUMBIA and Elyria Catholic in the field will be Lutheran West and four Cleveland schools — John Adams. East. Lincoln-West and Glenville. Tickets for one session will cost $1.75 for adults and $1.25 for students. Tickets for the entire tournament will cost $4 for adults and $2 for students.

Hornbeek is concerned about a possible letdown. His crew was 14th out of 18 teams in the rugged Medina Tournament. "I'm worried about a letdown." Hornbeek says. "because Columbia always seems to be up for their tournament."

Rusty Lenehan (105). Bob Smith (185). Mike Powers (138) and heavyweight Ed Szabo were Elyria Catholic's standouts at the Medina Tournament.

CLIFF ALLEN (185) is unbeaten at 8-0 to head Columbia's contingent. Other Raider standouts include freshman Tim Lint (105). who was second at the Vermilion Tournament. sophomore Dave Heinrich (132) . who has lost only twice; and four boys who have suffered only one setback — Scott Shirley (155). Bill Davis (126). Bob White (167) and Dana Babin (139).

Panthers take tourney

By BILL HAZLETT
C-T Sports Writer

COLUMBIA STATION — The ninth Columbia Wrestling Tournament went right down to the wire, with the outcome hinging on the heavyweight finals and consolation matches.

Elyria Catholic's Ed Szabo needed a pin in his final match to ice it for the Panthers, and if he got his pin, Columbia heavyweight Harry Lawrence would have to beat his opponent to get the win for the Raiders. The score was then 172-168 in Columbia's favor.

SZABO BEAT his opponent, Willie King from Glenville, but could only manage a decision. Lawrence lost to John Adams' Ray Roberts, 6-1, which apparently ended the tournament with the score deadlocked at 172.

A small error in computing the team scores was then uncovered which gave Elyria Catholic a half-point edge, and its first invitational tournament win in school history.

Panther mentor Dan Hornbeek was pleased with his team's performance, but not overly excited about the final outcome.

"We brought nine boys into the finals tonight and held a 23-point edge, and ended with only four champs and a narrow victory," he commented. Hornbeek, who is usually not at a loss for words, was rather tight-lipped last night, obviously displeased with a few of his wrestlers he thought should have fared better.

HE ALSO was not too pleased with the officiating, and losing two team points on separate occasions for his wrestlers' unsportsmanlike conduct.

Raider coach Tom Fragasse also was upset and also pleased at the outcome. He felt some of his upperclassmen should have done better, but was pleased his freshmen and sophomore wrestlers were able to catch Elyria Catholic and make the oucome uncertain.

Highland leads AA wrestlers

By BILL HAZLETT
C-T Sports Writer

HUDSON — After the first two rounds. Highland leads the pack in the AA Wrestling Tournament with 64½ points.

A surprisingly strong Oberlin team is tied for second place with Columbia with 36½ points. Oberlin has seven wrestlers going into the quarter finals today: Eric Howard (98). John Walker (132). Charles Walker (138). Wayne Walker (155). Richard Walker (167). Matt Wyman (175). and Brett Burrer (185).

A BIG disappointment for the Indians was the elimination of their standout at 145. Don Clark. Clark lost a close 11-10 decision to a determined Mike Hoyt from Olmsted Falls Hoyt then lost his next match to John Bonar of Brookside. which eliminated Clark from further competition.

Columbia has five wrestlers in the quarter finals led by Cliff Allen (175) who pinned both opponents. He is joined by Bill Davis (126). Dana Babin (138). Scott Shirley (155) and Bob White (185).

Olmsted Falls is currently sixth. helped by double wins from Mark Allison (98). Carl Johnson (112). Bill Loepp (167) and Heavyweight Dennis Kane.

ELYRIA CATHOLIC is a half point behind the Raiders with strong performances from Rusty Lenehan (105). Tom Skaugen (126) and Ed Szabo (HWT).

Brookside's hopes cling to four remaining wrestlers Dave Gonzalez (119). Bonar. Pete Lewis (175) and Scott McArthur (185)

Clearview's George Lyons. who placed fifth in the state last year. lost his second match at 112 pounds to a tough Elram Peterson of Warrensville Heights. As long as Peterson keeps winning. Lyons will have a shot at third place

ELYRIA WEST'S hopes all hang on somebody else winning Ozzie Board (132) won his first match but then lost to Elyria Catholic's Skaugen Rick Turner (145) lost his second match to Tom novar of Brooklyn. and Tim Fresch (HWT) lost his second match to Szabo of Elyria Catholic All three could follow their winning opponents into a third place

The sectionals are a time of ifs and maybes. and there are many area wrestlers who could end up battling for a third place this evening. It all depends on what happens in the afternoon

The final rounds start tonight at 7:30

Highland wrestlers snare honors in AA sectional

By BILL HAZLETT
C-T Sports Writer

HUDSON — Highland copped top honors in the AA wrestling tournament by placing seven wrestlers and totaling 142 points.

Columbia took only four wrestlers into the finals and managed a third finish with 105 points. First place honors went to Dana Babin (138) and Cliff Allen (185) while teammates Scott Shirley (155) took a secondand Bill Davis (126) took third.

OBERLIN, with a lackluster 4-7 dual meet record. got it all together and garnered 97 points to come in fifth place. Wayne Walker (155) defeated Columbia's Shirley to take first palce. Eric Howard (98) took a second. while Oberlin's other Walkers. John at 126. Charles (138). and Richard (167) took fourth. Brett Burrer (185) technically took second place. but suffered a possible broken shoulder in his final match and probably will not wrestle this year.

Elyria Catholic finished seventh overall, collecting 80 points on a first place win from Rusty Lenehan (105), a second from heavyweight Ed Szabo and third place finishes from Tom Skaugen (132) and Bob Smith (185).

Elyria West had one placer in Rick Turner who finished fourth at 145 pounds. West finished 13th overall with 15 points.

ROOKSIDE had no first place finishers but did receive 59½ points to finish ninth. Dave Gonzalez (119) finished second along with Pete Lewis (175). Dale Bonar (167) finished third by defeating Oberlin's Rich Walker.

Olmsted Falls brought only four wrestlers into last night's matches and finished fourth. two points behind Columbia. Mark Allison (98) pinned Oberlin's Howard and Dennis Kane decisioned Szabo of Elyria Catholic to take first place honors.

Area wrestlers faired very well overall as 23 of the 52 wrestlers going to the districts from Lorain County or Eastern Cuyahoga County.

THE TOP four wrestlers in each weight class will meet next week at the Stark County branch of Kent State University. Joining them will be the qualified from three other northeast Ohio sectional tournaments.

The top five in each weight at the districts will advance to the state finals in Columbus.

Oberlin heads area to AA mat district

CANTON — For 24 area grapplers, the name of the game will be to wrestle themselves into the top five in this weekend's District Class AA Tournament action at Kent State-Stark County

The top five survivors in each class will advance to the state tournament the weekend after next. The action gets underway at 5 p.m. tomorrow and continues Saturday with the semifinals at noon and the finals at 7 p.m.

Oberlin heads the area's representation with six qualifiers and four of them are named Walker — Wayne, the 155-pound champ at the Hudson sectional, John (126), Charles (138), and Richard (167).

Erie Howard (98) is also slated to compete for the Indians but it's unlikely Bret Burrer will make the trip The 185-pounder suffered a possible broken shoulder in the sectionals and is doubtful.

Olmsted Falls will be sending five wrestlers, including sectional champions Dennis Kane (heavyweight) and Mark Allison (98). Elyria Catholic and Columbia will send four each, Brookside three and Buckeye and Elyria West one apiece.

Other sectional champions advancing to district competition include Dana Babin (138) and Cliff Allen (185) of Columbia and Rusty Lenehan (105) of Elyria Catholic.

AA district wrestling

Columbia, Elyria Catholic top area teams

By BILL HAZLETT
C-T Sports Writer

STARK COUNTY — The early round leader in the Northeast Ohio AA Wrestling Tournament after last night's action is Akron Coventry with 38 points. Columbia Station is currently seventh with 16½ and Elyria Catholic has 12 for top area scores.

The wrestling started with 98 pounder Dan Manning of Beloit West Branch soundly defeating Mark Horner of Bedford Chanel. 16-1. Six and one half hours. and 166 matches later. Elyria Catholic's heavyweight Ed Szabo squaked by Pat Kennedy of Akron Hoban. 4-2.

LAST NIGHT'S wrestling saw only four of the area's 24 grapplers eliminated from the tournament: Oberlin's Eric Howard at 98. Brookside's Dave Gonzalez at 119. Elyria Catholic's 185 pounder Bob Smith. and Heavyweight Dennis Kane of Olmsted Falls. Every other area wrestler is still potentially a State qualifier. depending on the outcome of today's afternoon matches.

Anything can and does happen in tournament wrestling. Last year's defending state champ at 105. Dave Fischer of Beachwood. lost his first match of the season in the second round. Although still in the running for a possible third place. his defeat shows that no one is safe.

Almost one-third of this area's grapplers were double winners last night. and it's very possible some of them may be District Champions. At 98 pounds. Mark Allison of Olmsted Falls is in contention by virtue of a 24-0 superior decision and a first period pin. A much-improved Tom Skaugen of Elyria Catholic is doing well at 132. but two grapplers from the Hudson sectional could give him some trouble.

Columbia's Dana Babin could be assured of a second place finish at 138 due to an injury to his next opponent that may result in a forefeit win for Babin.

The 155 pound class looks to be a showdown between Oberlin's Wayne Walker and Columbia's Jeff Shirley. while at 185 pounds. Cliff Allen of Columbia is looking good. Hoban's Kelley could give him a rough contest.

At Heavyweight. Elyria Catholic's Szabo is a strong contender. If he wins today's first match. Christello of Brookfield will probably battle him for the championship.

From this district. five wrestlers from each weight class advance to the State Tournament next week. The contests for fifth and sixth place will definitely be the really important ones tonight.

Nine area AA wrestlers win trip to state meet

By BILL HAZLETT
C-T Sports Writer

CANTON — The Stark County KSU Wrestling District is called by many to be the "Little State Tournament" as 27 of 39 first places at last year's state tournament came from this district.

The competition this year was again extremely tough and of the 24 area wrestlers who competed only nine will be making the trip to Columbus.

THE TEAM championship was a runaway with Conventry gaining 146½ points and sending seven grapplers to state. Beloit West Branch was second with 77 points.

Columbia Station fared the best of the local Class AA schools collecting 55½ points to come in seventh. Dana Babin (138) got a close 5-3 win over Kenston's Brinton. Scott Shirley (155) had to win to go to Columbus and pulled out a close 3-2 victory over West Branch's Ross.

Cliff Allen (185) will wrestle next week with a fourth-place finish, being pinned by Blunk of Streetsboro in four minutes. Bill Davis (126) lost out on going to state by losing a tough 2-1 decision to St. Vincent's Staud.

ELYRIA CATHOLIC is sending three men to Columbus next week as it scored 42 points to finish eleventh. Rusty Lenahan (105) lost a tough 7-0 overtime match to Allen of Orrville to finish fourth. Ed Szabo (heavyweight), wrestling well all weekend, found himself outweighed and on his back behind Chritello of Brookfield.

Tom Skaugen (132) was in a must-win situation wrestling for fifth place. After a lackluster first period Skaugen escaped, took his man down and pinned him with 12 seconds left in the second stanza. The man he finally defeated was Willebond of Highland, first-place finisher at the Hudson Sectional.

Olmsted Falls finished twelfth with 40½ points on the strength of two wrestlers. Mark Allison (99) won easily through the competition defeating Savransky of Beachwood 6-3 to take first place. Bill Loepp (167) had to settle for fourth place losing again to Queen of Chamberlin. Loepp and Queen battled last weekend at the sectional for first and second place.

Oberlin saw its numbers depleted rapidly as only Wayne Walker (155) will represent the Indians after finishing third.

There were 208 wrestlers who participated in the district and only 65 will wrestle at the state tournament next week.

Coventry 146½, West Branch 73, Kenyon 72½, Hobon 59½, Columbia 55½, Aurora 49, Woodrich 46 Edgewood 44, Highland 42, Elyria Catholic 42, Olmsted Falls 40½, Chardon 38, Twinsburg 34.

Buckeye captures sixth Inland title

OBERLIN — It looked like a storm was brewing overhead but the real storm was down on the track in the form of the Buckeye track team.

The Bucks outscored their nearest competitor, Firelands, 145-121, yesterday to capture their sixth Inland Conference track crown.

The work horse for Buckeye was Mark Union who won the 100-yard dash, the 220-yard dash and the 440-yard dash.

After five events the Bucks trailed the Falcons by three points, 51-48, but after seven events Buckeye went ahead, 63-61, to stay.

Three records fell yesterday in the Inland event. Columbia's Frank Caso broke the old mark in the discuss with a toss of 152-4½. It broke the old mark set in 1974 of 150-3½. Caso also won the shot put with a heave of 52-5.

The Firelands' 880 relay team set a new record with a blazing time of 1:30.04 which shattered the old mark of 1:34.04.

Buckeye set the team scoring mark which it set in 1975 with 145 points over its old record of 125 points.

"We just got a super team effort out of our kids," Buckeye head coach Pat Hobert said.

HOBERT THOUGHT some unexpected points helped his team's efforts. "We got quite a few points in the field events we didn't think we'd get," Hobert said. "We didn't think we'd get as many second place finishes as we did."

Firelands' head coach Mike Revta, whose team last year broke Buckeye's streak of four Inland championships, thought, "We ran about the way we expected and finished about the way we expected. Buckeye is just too tough," Revta said.

Revta pointed out the running of Jim Billingsley as one of the standouts on his team. "Jim had a second in the long jump, a second in the high jump, a first in the pole vault and was on the winning 880 relay team. He had one heck of a day," Revta stated.

Billingsley was later injuried when he fell into the vaulting box as he tried for a conference record. He was taken to Allen Hospital for observation.

The other double winner in the meet was Roger Yost from Columbia with a win in the high and low hurdles.

Other teams coming in behind Buckeye and Firelands were Columbia with 69, Keystone 59, Avon 43, Lutheran West 19 and South Amherst 9.

RESULTS

100-yard dash — Union (Buckeye), West (Firelands), Garrett (Keystone), Sloan (Keystone), Saunders (Firelands) :10.5.

220-yard dash — Union (Buckeye), West (Firelands), Garrett (Keystone), Brown (Buckeye), Saunders (Firelands) :23.8.

440-yard dash — Union (Buckeye), Garrett (Keystone), Bracken (Buckeye), Quisenberry (Avon), Hannah (South Amherst) :51.9.

880-yard run — Dillon (Buckeye), Serina (Columbia), Seabold (Keystone), Blackburn (Lutheran West), Hardwick (South Amherst) 2:02.1.

Mile run — Vigg (Avon), Endral (Avon), Crumpler (Buckeye), Campbell (Columbia), Razdrh (South Amherst) 4:34.5.

Two mile run — Endoral (AVon), Vigg (Avon), Borling (Buckeye), Kulju (Buckeye), Campbell (Columbia) 10:19.2.

High hurdles — Yost (Columbia), Zemanek (Firelands), Wright (Firelands), Roberts (Buckeye), Turner (Buckeye) :21.7.

Low hurdles — Yost (Columbia), Zamanek (Firelands), Greve (Lutheran West), Roberts (Buckeye), Wright (Firelands) :15.5.

880-relay — Firelands (Wright, Saunders, Billingsley, West), Buckeye, Keystone, Lutheran West, South Amherst 1:30.04

Mile relay — Keystone (Slone, Davis, Reaser, Seabold), Firelands, Buckeye, Columbia, Lutheran West, 3:42.2

Completes Basic Training

Airman Dana J. Babin, son or Mr. and Mrs. Julius J. Babin of 23150 Doreen Dr., Columbia Station, Ohio, has been assigned to Chanute AFB, Illinois, after completing Air Force basic training.

During the six weeks at Lackland AFB, Texas, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations. Completion of this training earned the individual credits towards an associate in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Airman Babin will now receive specialized training in the aircraft equipment maintenance field.

The airman is a 1977 graduate of Columbia High School.

Earle-Babin

Kimberly Ann Babin and Thomas Hugh Earle were united in marriage recently in St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church with the Rev. Allen Alexander officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Julius and Pamela Babin, 23150 Doreen Drive, Columbia Station. The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Earle of Lafayette, La.

THOMAS, KIMBERLY
EARLE

Attending as maid of honor was Donna Lengen. Bridesmaids were Holli Babin, the bride's sister, and Debbie Powers. Erin Gill participated as flower girl.

Dan Karmgard served as best man and Mike Rothfeld and Richard Vawter ushered guests. Michael Ax was ring bearer.

A reception was held at Caro's Party Center in Medina.

The bride is a 1979 graduate of Columbia High School and attended Troy State University in Florida. She is serving in the Air Force, stationed at Dyess Air Force Base in Texas.

Her husband is a graduate of Massanutten Military Academy, Woodston, Va., and attended the University of Southwestern Louisiana. He is serving in the Air Force, stationed at Hurlburt Field, Fla., and will be transferred to Dyess AFB in December.

The newlyweds honeymooned to New Orleans, La.

Earle's full swing sparks Meteors

By JOE NOWAK
Staff Writer

MIDDLEBURG HEIGHTS — Midpark senior Megan Earle needed a new offensive approach after failing to bunt in her first two at-bats against Normandy during last Thursday's Division I sectional championship.

She decided to swing away in the seventh inning.

Good decision.

Earle's leadoff bloop down the right field line was misplayed into a three-base error and she would score two batters later on senior Caity Shirk's sacrifice fly to right.

Shirk's RBI gave the Meteors a lead they would never relinquish and Earle's run was the first of six Midpark would score in the inning on its way to a 7-1 win over the Invaders.

"I was just trying to put the ball in play somewhere," Earle said. "I knew I had to try and get a hit because I couldn't bunt the whole game."

With the win, Midpark advances to this afternoon's district semifinal against North Royalton/Garfield Heights at Day Park in Parma. The first pitch is set for 4:30 p.m.

Normandy did take a 1-0 lead in the second when Christina Schultz doubled home Ashley Lombardo. The Meteors, though, answered in the third when Michelle Knowles' single scored Shirk.

The teams would remain deadlocked in the 1-1 tie heading into the seventh inning because of the solid pitching performances of Midpark's Al Zelaski and Joy Foreman of Normandy.

Zelaski, who earned her 14th win on the mound, struck out five and at one point retired 13 straight batters. She also worked out of a one-out jam in the sixth. With a runner on second, third baseman Jessica Burgess snared a line drive and the inning ended on a fly ball to Earle in center field.

"I knew they liked to swing at high pitches and I tried to keep the ball inside because they liked to crowd the plate," Zelaski said of her strategy against the Invaders. "I just wanted to mix up my pitches and I felt I could be effective if I did that."

Normandy coach Bridget Zywiec praised the performance of Foreman, who also used a variety of pitches to strike out six, in addition to working out of a two-on, two-out jam in the sixth by getting Zelaski to pop out to third baseman Kristi Sambor.

"Joy's always done her job and she throws the ball where she's supposed to," Zywiec said. "Her record does not reflect the talent and skill she has."

In the seventh, following Earle's run on Shirk's sacrifice fly, the Meteors tacked on five more runs, with Maria Putrino, Tricia Balicky, Knowles, Michelle Fritz and Burgess all scoring in the frame.

"We have a good hitting team and that's important when you're playing a quality team like Normandy," Midpark coach Tom Balicky said.

For Zywiec, though, she said the game was one of missed opportunities for her team. "We had numerous chances with runners in scoring position and we hit the ball hard. We just hit it right at people."

Experienced players, and new coach look to mesh Wooster volleyball into league contender

In some sense, the 2007 season will mark a new era for College of Wooster volleyball due to a coaching change at the top, however in another, it should be business as usual for the Fighting Scots as an experienced group will aim for a 20-win season again and to be one of the North Coast Athletic Conference's top teams.

First-year mentor Sarah Davis is taking over a program that produced 20-win seasons in 2004 (21-9) and 2005 (25-7), and may have had another last fall had it not been for a key injury. Wooster appeared to be on its way to securing a spot in the four-team NCAC Tournament for the third year in a row at 4-2 in the league, but didn't make the tourney, only winning six total matches following that setback to finish 14-16 overall and 8-8 in the NCAC.

Carolyn Ciriegio, a second-team all-NCAC performer as a sophomore, is now healthy and flanked by fellow seniors Heather Wolff and Erin Wright, who have come back to the squad after being part of those 2004 and 2005 teams. Ciriegio was averaging 3.34 kills on a .246 attack percentage and 2.90 digs from her outside hitter position before suffering the knee injury, similar to her sophomore numbers (3.82 kpg, .273 attack pct., 4.62 dpg).

Wolff's return could be significant as the setter was on the All-NCAC Team her previous two seasons, earning second-team recognition in 2004 and honorable mention in 2005. Wolff will look to pick up where she left off, setting a College record for assists (1,501) and assists per game (13.17) as a sophomore, to go with 2.30 digs per game. Wright also is a welcome addition, as the 5-foot-11 middle hitter should contend for considerable action.

The Scots also have three juniors who are returning letterwinners in Ali Drushal, Abbie Casey, and Megan Earle. Drushal, who prepped at West Holmes High School, will likely anchor the team's defense after leading the league with 8.22 digs per game and racking up a school-record 888 total en route to NCAC Libero-of-the-Year honors in 2006. She's already just 721 digs away from breaking Wooster's career record in that category.

Casey is making the transition back to her more natural position of right-side hitter after serving as the setter, averaging 10.98 assists last fall, while Earle looks to continue to make her presence felt as both a defensive specialist and outside hitter.

Two other key players will be sophomores KateLynn Riley and Sarah Lorch. Riley, a hitter, was coming on strong at the end of her first year, ending up at 2.87 kills per game on a .203 attack percentage, while Lorch will be a factor, too, competing for playing time at middle hitter and right-side.

Overall, Davis, who has four other players on the roster, including two freshmen, is aiming to build on the Scots' tradition, and although still getting familiar with the personnel, she thinks this squad is capable of another winning season.

"It will be a lot of fun gelling the returning players, led by the seniors with loads of experience, and the incoming players, and get the entire group headed in the same direction," she said. "Our program wants to build off the past success of coach (Terri) Mason while working toward an NCAC title and an NCAA bid."

Wooster spikers go 1-3 at Kilt Classic

The College of Wooster volleyball team took home fifth-place honors at during the sixth Annual Kilt Classic on Saturday afternoon in Timken Gymnasium. The Fighting Scots finished 1-3 on the weekend, picking up their lone victory during Friday night's second session of play.

Mt. Union College won the tournament's championship going 4-0 during Friday and Saturday's action, while fellow Ohio Athletic Conference school Muskingum College took the runner-up honors with a 3-1 mark. Alma College ended with a 2-2 mark and took third by virtue of a 3-0 victory on Saturday over Carnegie Mellon University, who also finished 2-2. Westminster College finished play with an 0-4 record.

Action began on Friday night with the host Scots taking on Alma. Alma took the first game of the match, winning by 30-28 and 30-23 scores. Wooster fought back and took game three by a 30-23 count. Alma ended the home team's chance at a comeback with a 30-21 win in game four.

Wooster rebounded during its second match of the night, taking game one easily over Westminster, 30-17. Game two saw the Titans get some revenge, winning by a score of 31-29. Wooster answered back and took the final two games by a tally of 30-25 and 30-19. The Scots' offensive attack was led by Megan Earle with 28 kills in 53 attempts with six errors for a .415 hitting percentage.

The Fighting Scots would next face-off against Mt. Union in Saturday morning's play. The Purple Raiders came out of the gates, winning the first two games by 30-9 and 30-17 tallies. Wooster, however, would answer the call and dug deep, winning game three, 30-26, before Mt. Union claimed the victory with a 30-16 victory in game four.

In its final match of the weekend, the Scots fell to Muskingum in four games, dropping the first by a 30-23 score before coming back to take game two, 30-21. Game three was a nail biter, with the Muskies narrowly escaping with a 31-29 win. Wooster hung tough in game four, as Muskingum was victorious 30-24.

Leading the way for the Scots during the weekend was defensive ace Ali Drushal racking up 142 digs from her libero position. She added five service aces and earned herself a spot on the all-tournament team.

Earle led Wooster in kills (63), while Erin Wright posted the team-high in blocks and added 46 kills. KateLynn Riley gave the Scots' offense a boost with 53 kills on the weekend.

Senior setter Heather Wolff paced the offense with 11.50 assists per game during the two days of action to go with 18 kills, five service aces, and 37 digs.

Hiram Advances To Fourth Consecutive NCAC Tournament Final With 3-0 Win Over Wooster

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio - The No. 2 seeded Hiram Terriers, ranked 19th in the nation, advanced to their fourth straight North Coast Athletic Conference (NCAC) Tournament championship match with a 3-0 win over No. 3 seed Wooster in Pam Evans Smith Arena in Wittenberg's HPER Center.

The win moved the Terriers into Saturday's title match against No. 1 seed Wittenberg, the 2007 NCAC regular season champion and the top-ranked team in all of NCAA Division III. Hiram, which lost twice during the regular season to Wittenberg after upsetting the Tigers on their home floor a year ago, improved to 27-4 overall after posting a 12-2 record in the NCAC. Wooster closed out its season with records of 15-14 overall and 10-4 in the conference.

All three games were close into the late stages before the Terriers slowly pulled away. The difference was Hiram's attack percentage, which was .266 after 52 kills and 14 errors were the end result of 143 total attacks. Sarah Schoenhagen and Megan Taylor finished with 12 kills each to lead the way for the Terriers.

While Wooster libero Ali Drushal finished with a team-high 24 digs and Megan Earle added 15, the Terriers were efficient enough offensively. Their defense was paced by Wendy Birchfield with 25 digs, while Brittany Mayle added three blocks to her three kills and team-high 24 assists.

The Scots were led offensively by setter Heather Wolff, who contributed 28 assists and five kills and a .500 attack percentage. KateLynn Riley led Wooster with nine kills.

I chose Wooster because it was close to home and I was able to participate in a variety of activities.

My favorite spot on campus is the The Java Hut.

My favorite Wooster tradition is Filling of Kauke Arch with snow.

My favorite class here at Wooster has been Education 100 because of the 8-week field experience in the local school district and it was so much fun.

One thing I would change about Wooster would be building a new Physical Education Center.

Wooster Goes 1-3 in Season-Opening Tournament

Aug. 29-30, 2008
Grove City Box Score | Bluffton Box Score
Thiel Box Score | Bluffton Box Score

Searching for its first marks in the victory column on the young season, The College of Wooster volleyball team tallied a 1-3 record Friday and Saturday during the River City Tournament. The two-day, six-school event was held inside Ban Johnson Arena on Fenton Court on the campus of Marietta College.

In the nightcap on Friday, Wooster cruised past Bluffton College. The Scots got the better of the Beavers by a 3-0 score (25-21, 25-21, 25-21), but Bluffton avenged that loss by coming back for a 3-1 win (16-25, 25-16, 25-21, 25-15) in the final match of the tournament against the Scots. Friday's action started off in tough fashion for the Scots, who suffered a 3-1 setback (25-14, 25-17, 18-25, 28-26) at the hands of Grove City College.

In the first match of Saturday morning's action, Wooster rallied to tie the match at two sets each before Thiel College posted a 3-2 (21-25, 25-23, 25-23, 21-25, 15-12) win over the Scots.

Marietta, Bluffton and Thiel each posted 3-1 records over the two-day event. Grove City went 2-2, while Wooster went 1-3 and Oberlin College was 0-4.

Seniors Megan Earle and Ali Drushal were named to the all-tournament team for their efforts.

Complete statistics from this weekend's matches will be available Tuesday.

Wooster has nearly a week off before it travels to Baldwin-Wallace College next Friday and Saturday to take part in the Marcia French Memorial Tournament. The Scots will take on Trine University and Alma College on Friday, and will square off against the host Yellow Jackets and Westminster College on Saturday.

Riley, Earle, Drushal Lead Scots at Marcia French Tourney

Wanting to get back to the .500 mark on the season, The College of Wooster volleyball ran into some stiff competition during the Marcia French Memorial Tournament. During the two-day, seven-school event, the Fighting Scots notched a 1-3 record held inside Rudolph Ursprung Gymnasium on the campus of Baldwin-Wallace College.

In Wooster's opening match on Friday, the Scots needed four sets to get past Trine University by scores of 25-21, 18-25, 25-22, 25-17. In Friday's nightcap, Wooster won the two of the opening three sets, but Alma College rallied by winning the final two sets and evened the Scots record on the day at 1-1 with scores of 25-20, 17-25, 25-21, 23-25, 8-15.

In the first match of Saturday morning's action, Wooster took the first two sets with ease over host Baldwin-Wallace by counts of 25-20 and 25-14. However, the Yellow Jackets responded winning set three 25-15, set four 25-22, and set five 15-12 for the 3-2 win over the Scots. During the final match of the tournament, Wooster ran into a Westminster College team that was clicking on all cylinders, falling 25-21, 25-18, 25-18.

Individually over the four matches, junior KateLynn Riley paced the Scots' offense with 67 kills and 10 errors on 136 attempts for a stellar .419 hitting percentage, including a season-high 22 kills against Baldwin-Wallace. Senior Megan Earle also had a big weekend in every way, smacking down 49 kills, while freshman setter Lizzi Beal handed out 151 assists, including a season-high 50 against Baldwin-Wallace. Defensively, senior libero Ali Drushal continues to add to her College record which now stands at 2,520 with 117 digs over the four matches this weekend, while Earle picked up 72 digs. Also of note, Riley added to her all-around performance with three block solos and five block assists.

Case Western Reserve University, Westminster, Baldwin-Wallace and Alma each posted 3-1 records over the two-day event, with Case Western being named tournament team champions via a tiebreaker. Wooster and Allegheny were each 1-3, while Trine finished 0-4.

Wooster will open the 2008 portion of its home schedule this Friday when it hosts a tri-match with Otterbein College (3-5) and Ursuline College (4-5). The Scots battle the Cardinals at 4 p.m. and will square off with the Arrows at 8 p.m. Otterbein and Ursuline will take on each other at 6 p.m.

Volleyball goes 1-3 in Marcia French Tourney

Johann Weber
Senior Sports Writer

The volleyball team extended their non-conference season last weekend, with a second straight 1-3 tournament, this time at the Marcia French Memorial Tournament in Berea, Ohio.

Wooster, whose overall record rises to 2-6, has struggled with their early season opponents so far, despite strong performance in multiple games of each match.

Against both Baldwin-Wallace College and Alma College, Wooster showed its strength early, but couldn't seem to pull out wins to close out each match. The team did come up victoriously against Trine University, which Wooster beat in three of four games, with scores of 25-21, 18-25, 25-22 and 25-17.

Wooster's worst match was their final one, coming against Westminster College, who kept the Scots from even a single win in their three-game bout.

"The games were intense and I feel we had the potential to win all the games, but that tournament is behind us. It is a reminder that we can improve on things to become a phenomenal team," said first-year Carmen Guess '12.

Once again, a number of players on the team showed their strength on the court, with notable performances from KateLynn Riley '10, Ali Drushal '09, Megan Earle '09 and first-year Lizzie Beal '12.

Drushal and Earle, who are regular contributors to the Wooster stat sheets, once again had praiseworthy performances. Drushal added to her already existing College record of over 2,500 digs, while Earle knocked down 49 kills. Beal earned 151 assists and Riley had 67 kills, to complete Wooster's top performances over the weekend.

Despite their frustrating tournaments so far this season, the team is optimistic about what's to come. "These first matches have been a struggle, partially because we are a new team but also because it takes a few matches before everyone is playing on the same page. Once we get into the swing of things we will all be performing as a team and helping each other out between every play," said Amanda Gottesman '11.

So as the season heats up and Wooster prepares for its first home games this weekend, their attention turns to putting the pieces of their team together in just the right way, getting the cogs to mesh, and earning some more checks in the win column — hopefully starting this Friday with Wooster's matches against Otterbein at 4 p.m. and Ursuline at 8 p.m.

This completes Wooster's home opener. The team especially hopes that spectators will turn out to support them and witness them coming together.

"Our team will be better than last year. We have a lot of young players who are incredible. We'll play better especially because we have a home court advantage. We have worked hard in pre-season and these few matches we have played in and it is only a matter of another match or two and we will be rocking the volleyball court," said Gottesman.

Wooster Sweeps A Pair in Home-Opening Tri-Match

WOOSTER, Ohio - The College of Wooster tallied a pair of non-conference victories Friday evening during its 2008 home-opening matches inside Timken Gymnasium as part of a tri-match with Otterbein College and Ursuline College. With the two wins, the Fighting Scots improve their record to 4-6 overall.

Looking to utilize home-floor advantage for the first time, the Scots came out with a purpose in its two matches on Friday, winning each in convincing fashion. First, Wooster disposed of Otterbein (3-7) in three games (25-21, 25-22, 25-18) to open the 2008 home schedule. Seniors Abbie Casey and Megan Earle along with junior KateLynn Riley led the Scots' offense with nine kills apiece.

Defensively, senior libero Ali Drushal paced the team with 25 digs, while Earle tacked on nine. Freshman Sarah Hawke and junior Sarah Lorch dominated the net for Wooster, as the tandem combined for one solo block and 11 block assists.

Urusline (5-6) became the Scots' next victim after the Arrows downed Otterbein in four games during the evening's second match. Ursuline rallied from down two games to none against Wooster and took the third set, but the Scots eventually prevailed in four (25-20, 25-8, 18-25, 25-16). Riley continued her hot hitting streak with 18 kills on 35 attempts with just two errors for a .457 hitting percentage for the Scots, while Earle was right behind her with 11 of her own. Freshman setter Lizzi Beal chipped in with six kills, while dishing out 30 assists against the Cardinals, and tacked on 38 assists against the Arrows.

Drushal led the Wooster back row with a season-high 39 digs against Ursuline, giving her 2,584 for her career, and now sits 106 away from tying the North Coast Athletic Conference mark of 2,690 set by Wittenberg's Emilie Schmid. Sophomores Abby Jensen and Amanda Gottesman, along with Earle, Beal and Casey were all in double figures in digs with 21, 15, 18, 12 and 13, respectively.

Wooster has a week off before it travels to Hiram College (4-6, 1-0 NCAC) for another tri-match on Friday evening, including its NCAC opening match with the Terriers slated to start at 4:30 p.m., followed by a non-conference showdown with Defiance College (6-5) at 6:30 p.m.

Wooster Earns a Split in Competitive Tri-Match

The College of Wooster volleyball team battled with North Coast Athletic Conference foe Hiram College over five tight sets, eventually coming up short 17-25, 26-24, 25-23, 21-25, 13-15 Friday in the opener of a tri-match hosted by the Terriers in Price Gymnasium. Wooster went on to victory in its second match of the day, a hard-fought four-set match over Defiance College by scores of 19-25, 25-22, 25-19, 25-22.

With the split, Wooster moves to 5-7 overall and 0-1 in the NCAC.

The Scots were sluggish against host Hiram in the first set of the match and took a 2-1 set lead, but eventually the Terriers pulled away for the three sets to two victory. Junior KateLynn Riley and senior Megan Earle led the way with 20 and 14 kills, respectively, while freshman setter Lizzi Beal tallied 54 assists and 10 digs. Senior libero Ali Drushal led the Scots' defensive unit racking up 37 digs, while Earle tacked on 21. Freshman Sarah Hawke added seven kills along with two block solos and a block assist.

In the second match, the Scots again came out on the short end of the first set, but turned around to win the next three against the Yellow Jackets. Wooster hit the net for 54 kills, led by a season-high 18 from senior Abbie Casey. Riley and Earle added 12 and 11, respectively. Defense was a key factor in the match as the Scots totaled 90 digs and eight total blocks. Riley led the way with two block solos, while Drushal paced Wooster with 31 digs, while Earle tallied 25 and sophomore Abby Jensen chipped in with 10. Also of note, Beal handed out 50 assists in the victory.

With her combined 68 digs during Friday's matches, Drushal is quickly approaching the North Coast Athletic Conference career digs mark. Coming into this season, she amassed 2,309 digs, and has 343 thus far this fall. With her total of 2,652, she needs just 38 more digs to surpass Wittenberg University's Emilie Schmid's total of 2,690 on the all-time list.

The Scots will be in action on Tuesday when they host Allegheny College in an NCAC tilt beginning at 7 p.m.

Drushal Becomes NCAC Career Digs Leader, Scots Post Come-from-Behind Victory

WOOSTER, Ohio - Allegheny College raced out and grabbed a two sets to one lead inside Timken Gymnasium Tuesday night in a North Coast Athletic Conference match against the College of Wooster volleyball team, but the Scots didn't allow that to happen, mounting a comeback and besting the Gators three sets to two by scores of 16-25, 25-17, 28-30, 25-18, 15-10. The five-set victory moves Wooster's record to 6-7 overall, including a perfect 3-0 mark at home, and 1-1 in the conference.

During Tuesday's action, Wooster senior libero Ali Drushal notched a season-high 45 digs, giving her 388 on the season and 2,697 for her career. With those 2,697 career digs, Drushal becomes the North Coast Athletic Conference's all-time leader in that category, surpassing Wittenberg University's Emilie Schmid's total of 2,690.

The first two sets were lopsided throughout, as each squad utilized big runs and eventually pulled away.

Set three saw Allegheny jump out to a quick 7-2 advantage, but the Scots answered with an 11-5 run of their own midway though the set, taking a slim one-point lead 15-14. With neither team holding more than a two-point bulge the remainder of the set, Allegheny trailed by a single point, 28-27. The Gators rattled off a 3-0 run and took the two sets to one lead.

During set four, the teams were deadlocked at 16-16 before Wooster used a quick 5-0 spurt, taking a 21-16 lead and eventually the set. The same scenario played out in the decisive set. With the Scots clinging to a one-point advantage, Drushal stepped behind the service line, and served four consecutive points for a 14-9 lead and a Wooster victory.

Junior KateLynn Riley aided the Wooster cause with a strong all-around performance, tallying 23 kills, two service aces, two block solos and three block assists. Seniors Megan Earle and Abbie Casey nailed down 16 and 11 kills, respectively, while Earle tallied a season-best 30 digs.

Helping out on the offensive side, freshman Lizzi Beal handed out 53 assists and racked up three kills of her own, while sophomore Amanda Gottesman and Drushal recorded two service aces apiece.

Scots Go 2-1 During Trio of Weekend Matches

The College of Wooster volleyball team easily defeated Earlham College in straight sets Friday night in Richmond, Ind. by scores of 25-17, 25-21, 25-13. During a tri-match Saturday, the Scots ran into a buzzsaw in North Coast Athletic Conference powerhouse and No.8 ranked Wittenberg University, falling by scores of 11-25, 15-25, 11-25 in the opener of a tri-match hosted by the Tigers. During the second match of the day, Wooster avenged a pair of losses during the 2007 season to Mt. Union College, coming out on top in three sets by tallies of 25-14, 25-17, 25-23.

Leading the Scots' offensive charge was junior KateLynn Riley, who pounded down a combined 36 kills on 72 attempts with just 10 errors for a .361 hitting percentage. Highlighting her stellar weekend was a 12-kill performance on 20 attempts with no hitting errors against the Purple Raiders, who fall to 14-4 overall. Senior Abbie Casey finished with 19 kills and three service aces, while classmate Megan Earle tallied 11 kills. Setter Lizzi Beal concluded her weekend with 65 assists, including 26 helpers in the victory over Earlham.

Defensively, senior libero Ali Drushal notched 52 digs along with a team-high four service aces, while Earle finished with 24 digs. Riley completed her all-around weekend with a combined four solo and two assisted blocks, including three solo and one block assist against Earlham.

The Scots will look to get above the .500 mark in the NCAC and keep their home record perfect inside Timken Gymnasium when they host the Oberlin College Yeowomen in a match Wednesday at 7 p.m.

Scot Spikers Sweep Oberlin to Move Above .500

WOOSTER, Ohio – The College of Wooster volleyball team moved its record over the .500 mark both overall and in the North Coast Athletic Conference Wednesday evening by sweeping visiting Oberlin College in straight sets (25-18, 25-20, 25-15). With the victory, the Scots move to 9-8 overall and 3-2 in NCAC action this season.

In the opening set, the Yeowomen (3-13, 2-3 NCAC) jumped out to a 4-1 lead. The Scots quickly responded with an 8-1 run of their own. Oberlin worked its way back into the set, eventually tying the initial game at 11-11. Wooster utilized a 6-1 run to jump out 17-12, and took the opening set via a KateLynn Riley service ace.

Set two featured a nip-and-tuck battle in the opening points with the score tied at 4-4. An Oberlin hitting error followed by a pair of service aces by Riley put Wooster up 7-4. The Scots slowly pulled away and held a 19-11 advantage. However, the Yeowomen wouldn't go quietly, rattling off a 7-3 run of their own, cutting the Wooster advantage to four at 22-18. The two teams traded points, but in similar fashion to the first set, Wooster tallied the set-winning point thanks to a service ace, this time off the arm of Amanda Gottesman.

Wooster jumped and held leads of 5-1, 9-4, and 15-9 in the third set before pulling away for the conference victory.

Riley led the Scots' offense once again, slamming down a team-high 12 kills on 25 attempts with just one error for a .440 hitting percentage. Adding offensive firepower to a balanced Wooster attack was Sarah Hawke with seven kills, while Megan Earle and Lizzi Beal contributed six and five kills, respectively.

Sarah Lorch was a force at the net for Wooster, recording two blocks and three kills, while Riley and Beal teamed up for two assisted blocks apiece.

Beal dished out 27 assists on the evening, and added a service ace in guiding the Scots offense. Also of note, Riley recorded a season- and career-high five service aces in the match.

Defensively, libero Ali Drushal finished with a team-best 20 digs and chalked up three service aces, while Earle finished with 14 digs.

Oberlin latest casualty of Scot volleyball team

After starting 2-6, volleyball team has won seven of last nine and improves to 9-8 overall; team remains undefeated at home in Timken Gymnasium

Andrew Vogel
Sports Editor

For the second year in a row, it took a while for the Wooster volleyball team to get going. Yet again, this season, the team has satrted slowly, but has been able to work its kinks out just in time for conference play.

Last weekend, the team was able to win two out of three away from home. On Friday, Sept. 26, the team easily dispatched of Earlham College (2-13 overall, 0-2 North Coast Athletic Conference) winning in three straight games, 25-17, 25-21 and 25-13.

The following day, the team traveled to Springfield, Ohio and lost in a sweep to Wittenberg University (15-2, 4-0), 11-25, 15-25 and 11-25. The Tigers are currently ranked No. 8 in the country.

However, the team recovered in its afternoon match and took down non-conference foe Mount Union College (14-5 overall), winning 25-14, 25-17 and 25-23. The team improved to 8-8 overall, with a 2-2 record in the North Coast Athletic Conference.

KateLynn Riley '10 has shouldered much of the offensive load this season and notched 36 kills on 72 attempts overall this weekend. Riley's best match came on Saturday against Mount Union, tallying 12 kills on 20 attempts against the Purple Raiders.

KateLynn Riley '10 (10) has keyed the team's offense this season, holding the team lead in kills (Photo by Elena Dahl).

Abbie Casey '09 and Megan Earle '09 also contributed offensively over the weekend. Casey tallied 19 kills on the weekend, while Earle chipped in 11. Newcomer Lizzi Beal '12 has stepped right in at setter and filled the void left by departed Heather Wolff '08, and distributed 65 assists over the weekend.

Ali Drushal '09 again filled the defensive stat sheet, tallying 52 digs. Drushal added in a team-high four service aces over the three games. Earle added 24 digs along with her 11 kills.

On Wednesday, the team took on Oberlin College and maintained their unblemished record in the friendly confines of Timken Gymnasium with a sweep of the Yeomen, winning 25-18, 25-20 and 25-15.

Riley again led the offense with 12 kills on 25 attempts. Earle chipped in with six kills.

Earle also added on the defensive side with 14 digs. Drushal led the team with 20 digs, and Beal dished out 27 assists.

They host Kenyon College and Malone College tomorrow.

Volleyball goes 1-3 in Marcia French Tourney

Johann Weber
Senior Sports Writer

The volleyball team extended their non-conference season last weekend, with a second straight 1-3 tournament, this time at the Marcia French Memorial Tournament in Berea, Ohio.

Wooster, whose overall record rises to 2-6, has struggled with their early season opponents so far, despite strong performance in multiple games of each match.

Against both Baldwin-Wallace College and Alma College, Wooster showed its strength early but couldn't seem to pull out wins to close out each match. The team did come up victoriously against Trine University, which Wooster beat in three of four games, with scores of 25-21, 18-25, 25-22 and 25-17.

Wooster's worst match was their final one, coming against Westminster College, who kept the Scots from even a single win in their three-game bout.

"The games were intense and I feel we had the potential to win all the games, but that tournament is behind us. It is a reminder that we can improve on things to become a phenomenal team," said first-year Carmen Guess '12.

Once again, a number of players on the team showed their strength on the court, with notable performances from KateLynn Riley '10, Ali Drushal '09, Megan Earle '09 and first-year Lizzie Beal '12.

Drushal and Earle, who are regular contributors to the Wooster stat sheets, once again had praiseworthy performances. Drushal added to her already existing College record of over 2,500 digs, while Earle knocked down 49 kills. Beal earned 131 assists and Riley had 67 kills, to complete Wooster's top performances over the weekend.

Despite their frustrating tournaments so far this season, the team is optimistic about what's to come. "These first matches have been a struggle, partially because we are a new team but also because it takes a few matches before everyone is playing on the same page. Once we get into the swing of things we will all be performing as a team and helping each other out between every play," said Amanda Gottesman '11.

So as the season heats up and Wooster prepares for its first home games this weekend, their attention turns to putting the pieces of their team together in just the right way, getting the cogs to mesh, and earning some more checks in the win column — hopefully starting this Friday with Wooster's matches against Otterbein at 4 p.m. and Ursuline at 8 p.m.

This completes Wooster's home opener. The team especially hopes that spectators will turn out to support them and witness them coming together.

"Our team will be better than last year. We have a lot of young players who are incredible. We'll play better especially because we have a home court advantage. We have worked hard in pre-season and these few matches we have played in and it is only a matter of another match or two and we will be rocking the volleyball court," said Gottesman.

> "The games were intense and I feel we had the potential to win all the games, but that tournament behind us is a reminder that we can improve on things to become a phenomenal team."

Wooster Splits A Pair of Matches, Including Win in NCAC Tilt Over Kenyon

WOOSTER, Ohio - The College of Wooster split a pair of matches Saturday afternoon inside Timken Gymnasium as part of a tri-match with North Coast Athletic Conference foe Kenyon College and Malone College. With the one conference win and one non-conference defeat, the Fighting Scots moved their record to 10-9 overall and 4-2 in the NCAC.

Following their 3-0 win over Oberlin College on Wednesday, the Scots came out with a purpose against the Ladies, winning each set in convincing fashion. Wooster swept the Ladies by convincing scores of 25-18, 25-10, 25-7. The Wooster offensive surge was led by junior KateLynn Riley who knocked down 11 kills on just 21 attempts with one error along with three service aces, while freshman Kate Brady and Sarah Hawke each had five kills, and senior Megan Earle and freshman Meredith Kiefer added four kills apiece.

Defensively, Ali Drushal paced the team with 16 digs, while Earle tallied eight of her own. The Scots dominated the net, as Hawke recorded five block assists. Riley aided the cause with four block assists along with Kiefer's one block solo and two block assists and Sarah Lorch's three block assists.

Malone (15-7) battled the Scots for three grueling sets after the Pioneers had downed Kenyon in straight sets (25-7, 25-13, 25-16) in the day's second match. Malone came right back and delivered the points needed to knock out Wooster, beating the hosts in three (25-17, 28-26, 25-20). Riley again led the way with 15 kills for the Scots, while Earle knocked down eight.

Earle had a good all-around match, leading the Scot defense with 17 digs against Malone. Drushal and sophomore Abby Jensen were each in double figures in digs with 16 and 10, respectively. Lizzi Beal and Riley had big matches at the net, as each recorded two block solos and three block assists.

Beal continued her setting duties with 54 assists over the two matches along with seven kills.

Wooster heads back into league play for three of its four matches this week as the Scots first make the trek down to Delaware, Ohio on Wednesday for an NCAC match-up with the Battling Bishops of Ohio Wesleyan University. The first game is slated to begin at 7 p.m.

Scots Edge Out NCAC Victory Over Denison in Five Sets, Fall to Capital 3-0

The College of Wooster volleyball battled with North Coast Athletic Conference foe Denison University (6-13, 3-4 NCAC) inside Livingston Gymnasium in Granville, Ohio, on Saturday morning, eventually pulling out a grueling come-from-behind three sets to two by scores of 25-11, 23-25, 19-25, 25-21, 15-12 over the Big Red.

Wooster (13-10, 7-2 NCAC) did fall in its second match of the day with Capital University (21-5), losing in straight sets by scores of 25-11, 25-18, 25-11.

After winning the opening set against Denison, the Big Red secured the next two sets, and took a 2-1 advantage headed into the fourth set. With the score tied at 20-20, Wooster rattled off five of the next six points, and tied the match at two sets apiece. During the decisive fifth set, Wooster traded points with the hosts before securing the set and the match victory.

Leading Wooster offensive in the conference victory over Denison was freshman Sarah Hawke, who pounded down a career-high 18 kills. Junior KateLynn Riley notched 14 kills for Wooster in the win along with two block solos and five block assists at the net.

Additionally, sophomore Abby Jensen paced the backline with 17 digs against Denison, while freshman Lizzi Beal added 11 digs to go along with her 37 assists and three kills.

The Crusaders jumped out early in the opening set against Wooster, and never relinquished that advantage in sweeping the Scots in three sets.

Riley lead the Wooster offense with nine kills against Capital, while senior Megan Earle racked up 12 digs in the loss.

Wooster moves back into conference play this week by hosting Earlham College (3-19, 1-7 NCAC) at Timken Gym on Friday at 7 p.m.

Scots Cruise Past Earlham 3-0

WOOSTER, Ohio - The College of Wooster volleyball team used a balanced attack to power past North Coast Athletic Conference rival Earlham College, sweeping the Quakers in straight sets (25-9, 25-21, 25-19) Friday evening inside Timken Gymnasium.

The Fighting Scots (14-10, 8-2 NCAC) edged out to a 3-2 lead in set number one, and opened up a 13-2 lead on a 10-0 run, and never looked back in pulling out the 16-point win. The Scots cruised the second and third games thanks to large runs, with Earlham (3-20, 1-8 NCAC) unable to find any answers for the Scots' all-around offensive and defensive prowess.

Both aspects of the Scot game seemed to be in tune, with the front line unleashing a powerful attack and shutting down any form of Quaker offense, and the back row, led by libero Ali Drushal, digging up most would-be Quaker scoring threats.

Junior KateLynn Riley's 10 kills led the Scot attack during her all-around match that also featured two block solos and six assisted blocks. The freshman duo of Sarah Hawke and Meredith Kiefer smashed four kills apiece, while Hawke was a force at the net recording seven block assists and Kiefer chipping in with one. Freshman setter Lizzi Beal led the Scots' offense with 23 assists, adding four kills and seven digs in the straight-set victory. Rounding out the Scot arsenal was the tandem of freshman Kate Brady and junior Sarah Lorch with three kills each.

Drushal took charge of Wooster's defense, registering 18 digs, while classmate Megan Earle and sophomore Amanda Gottesman both wound up with eight digs, respectively.

Next up for Wooster will be a tri-match with NCAC power Wittenberg College and Ohio Athletic Conference force Heidelberg College on Saturday inside Timken Gymnasium. The Scots will take on Wittenberg at 11 a.m., and then will be off for a match as Wittenberg goes head-to-head with Heidelberg at 1 p.m. The Scots will resume action at 3 p.m. to face-off against Heidelberg.

Wooster Swept In Highly Competitive Tri-Match, Beal Records Rare Triple-Double

WOOSTER, Ohio - After defeating Earlham College in straight sets on Friday night, The College of Wooster volleyball team saw itself get swept by North Coast Athletic Conference foe and No. 5-ranked Wittenberg University 25-14, 25-22, 25-18 Saturday in the opener of a highly competitive tri-match inside Timken Gymnasium. Wooster went on to drop its second match of the day to Heidelberg College 27-29, 25-13, 25-15, 25-14.

During the tough loss to Heidelberg, Wooster freshman setter Lizzi Beal recorded what is believed to be the first triple-double since Trisha Wiles accomplished the rare feat back in 1999. Against the Student Princes, Beal pounded down 10 kills, dished out 29 assists, and dug up 10 would-be Heidelberg kill attempts.

The Scots (14-12, 8-3 NCAC) began the first game with Wittenberg clinging to a 7-6 lead, before the visiting Tigers began a surge that would last throughout the end of the set. During the second set, the Scots possessed a slim 22-21 lead in a set that featured short runs by both sides. However, the Tigers rattled off the final 4-0 run and took set two, 25-22. In the third and final set, Wittenberg held a 17-16 advantage. Thanks to runs of 5-1 and 3-1, the visitors took the set and the match.

KateLynn Riley led the Scots pounding down 10 kills and recording three block solos and a block assist. Megan Earle finished with four kills and seven digs, and Ali Drushal recorded 18 digs. Beal ended the match with 19 assists.

The match against Heidelberg (23-5) was a different scenario, with the Scots and the Student Princes trading leads the entire match. There were several instances in which both teams found themselves in rallies lasting several minutes. It was the Scots, though, that would break through first, taking the opening set. However, Heidelberg stormed back and took the final three sets for the non-conference victory.

Riley led the Scots with a team-high 15 kills, and now stands at 974 kills over her three-year career, while Earle and Beal also added 10 kills apiece. Earle chipped in defensively with 20 digs and Beal added her 10, while sophomores Abby Jensen and Amanda Gottesman nearly hit double figures with nine digs each.

Beal completed her triple-double with 29 assists, while Drushal paced the defense with 34 digs.

The Scots will look to rebound when they travel to Meadville, Pa. and take on NCAC rival Allegheny College (13-12, 9-2 NCAC) in a battle for second place in the conference on Tuesday at 7 p.m.

Riley Reaches Milestone, Scots Move Into Second in Comeback Thriller

Junior hitter KateLynn Riley became the sixth player in school history to reach the 1,000-kill mark for her career on Tuesday night, and helped The College of Wooster volleyball team comeback from a two-set deficit against North Coast Athletic Conference foe Allegheny College inside the David V. Wise Center in Meadville, Pa. for a 3-2 win. With the victory, Wooster sweeps the season series with the Gators, each coming in five sets, and takes over sole possession of second place in the conference with a 9-3 record.

Wooster dropped the first two sets of the match 25-18 and 25-16. However, the visiting Scots dug out of that hole, and took sets three (25-18), four (25-12), and five (15-13) in convincing fashion for the come-from-behind key conference win.

Riley posted a career-high 29 kills, including nine in the decisive fifth set, with just six errors in 64 attempts on Tuesday, giving her 374 this season and 1,003 for her career. She joins Tiffany Rice (1,750 kills from 2002-05), Erin Schaffner (1,362 kills from 2003-06), Mandy Rearick (1,238 kills from 1996-99), Erin Donnell (1,162 kills from 1999-2002), and Carrie Zuro (1,044 kills from 1993-96) as the only Wooster players to reach that level.

Riley's night wasn't finished there, with the third-year Scot tallying a team-best four service aces, and four total blocks, including a solo block.

Other individual highlights for the Scots included the play of freshman Kate Brady, who came off the bench in the final three sets to spark the Wooster offense, recording a career-high 10 kills with just two errors on 16 attempts for a .500 hitting percentage. Additionally, senior Megan Earle chipped in with eight kills to go along with 23 digs, and freshman Sarah Hawke contributed five kills.

Freshman setter Lizzi Beal handed out 50 assists, while senior libero Ali Drushal inched closer to the 3,000-dig milestone with a team-high 24 digs. The school's all-time leader in career digs, Drushal needs just 75 more digs to reach that mark.

Scots Notch 10th NCAC Win With 3-1 Triumph Over Oberlin

The College of Wooster volleyball team collected its 10th North Coast Athletic Conference victory this season Friday evening by besting host Oberlin College three sets to one (25-21, 25-17, 20-25, 25-20). With the win, the Scots improve to 16-12 overall and 10-3 in league action this season.

Freshman Meredith Kiefer led the Scots past the Yeowomen (7-19, 6-8 NCAC), slamming down a team- and career-high 11 kills on a .391 hitting percentage. Also adding offensive firepower to a balanced Wooster attack was junior KateLynn Riley with 10 kills, while senior Megan Earle nearly posted a double-double with nine kills and 17 digs.

At the net defensively, junior Sarah Lorch was a force to be reckoned with, recording three solo and three block assists in addition to five kills, while Riley registered two solo and two block assists.

Setter Lizzi Beal recorded a double-double dishing out 37 assists to go along with 10 digs on the evening, adding four kills, a service ace, and a block assist in guiding the Scots' offense.

Defensively, libero Ali Drushal recorded 22 digs, while the sophomore duo of Abby Jensen and Amanda Gottesman each tallied seven digs, respectively. Also of note, Gottesman notched a team- and career-best three service aces.

The Scot spikers will next hit the court on Saturday afternoon when they travel to NCAC foe Kenyon College for a tri-match. The Scots will first play the Ladies (0-25, 0-14 NCAC) at 1 p.m., followed by a non-conference match with Otterbein College (8-19), a team Wooster defeated in straight sets back on Sept. 12 inside Timken Gymnasium.

Scots Sweep Denison For Win No. 20

WOOSTER, Ohio - The College of Wooster volleyball team posted its first 20-win season since 2005 by sweeping Denison University 25-20, 25-22, 25-17 in North Coast Athletic Conference action at Timken Gymnasium Saturday afternoon on Senior Day. The Fighting Scots move to 20-12 this fall and 13-3 in the NCAC, notching their first 20-victory season since the 2005 squad went 25-7.

Wooster put the pressure on the Big Red (10-18, 7-9 NCAC) early and often by connecting on 42 kills for a .301 hitting percentage. Junior KateLynn Riley led the way with 16 kills, while senior Megan Earle was also in double figures with 10 kills on 17 attempts with two errors for .471 hitting percentage. Additionally, freshmen Meredith Kiefer and Sarah Hawke each tallied four kills.

Freshman setter Lizzi Beal posted 35 assists, two kills and a service ace. With those 35 assists, Beal moves into fifth place on Wooster's all-time laurels for a single-season with 1,067.

Defensively, Ali Drushal and Earle led the team with 14 and 15 digs, respectively, while Riley recorded a block solo and three block assists. Also of note, Hawke finished with three block assists, while junior Sarah Lorch racked up three kills and three block assists.

Wooster, who enters the NCAC postseason tournament as the No. 2 seed while riding a six-match winning streak, will face No. 3 seed Hiram College, who the Scots split with this season, Friday evening at 8 p.m. or 30 minutes following the conclusion of the first match. The other semifinal will put No. 1 seed Wittenberg University against No. 4 seed Allegheny College.

Terriers End Scots' Season In NCAC Tourney Semifinals

Winners of 10 of its last 13 matches to finish out the regular season, The College of Wooster's volleyball team late-season run of momentum came to an end Friday evening for a second-straight season to Hiram College in the semifinals of the North Coast Athletic Conference Tournament inside the HPER Center in Springfield. The No. 2 seeded Fighting Scots fell in three sets to the No. 3 seeded Terriers 27-25, 25-14, 25-22, and ended their 2008 campaign with an overall record of 20-13, marking the most victories since the 2005 season.

Set one featured mini-spurts by each side before Hiram claimed the final two points in the 27-25 win. During the second set, Hiram ran out to a 10-1 lead before Wooster came roaring back, getting as close as five at 13-8. However, Hiram answered and took set two 25-14. The third set played out much like the opener with each side not able to pull away. With the set tied at 19-19, Hiram scored six of the final nine points for a 25-22 win.

Junior outside hitter KateLynn Riley paced the offensive attack for Wooster as she connected with a team- and match-high 13 kills, one solo block, three block assists and two service aces. Meredith Kiefer and Megan Earle contributed eight and six kills, respectively, while Kiefer added two block assists.

In the Wooster back row, senior libero Ali Drushal paced the team with 22 digs, while Earle racked up 11 digs and freshman setter Lizzi Beal passed out 28 assists and smacked two kills on just two attempts.

Hiram (19-17) moves on to the championship final where it will once again do battle with No. 5-ranked Wittenberg University (31-2) on Saturday at 2 p.m., as those two teams will meet in the conference tournament finals for the seventh-straight season. The Tigers swept Allegheny College 25-11, 25-14, 25-18 in Friday's other semifinal to put themselves in contention for their 11th tournament title in the last 12 years, as Hiram took home the tournament title back in 2006.

Scots Win Three Individual Awards, Four on All-NCAC Teams

CLEVELAND, Ohio – The College of Wooster collected three of the North Coast Athletic Conference's four individual awards, highlighted by senior Ali Drushal (Lakeville, Ohio / West Holmes) being named the NCAC Libero of the Year for the third-consecutive season as announced by league officials on Saturday in conjunction with the NCAC Tournament championship match. Joining Drushal on the all-league first team was junior middle hitter KateLynn Riley (Westlake, Ohio / Westlake), while senior outside hitter Megan Earle (Middleburg Hts., Ohio/Midpark) was tabbed an all-NCAC honorable mention recipient.

Freshman setter Lizzi Beal (Bowling Green, Ky./Greenwood) was selected the NCAC Newcomer of the Year and found a spot on the honorable mention squad, and head coach Sarah Davis picked up her first NCAC Coach of the Year award. Drushal notched her third all-conference recognition in volleyball, earning her second-straight spot on the first-team after a second-team laurel in 2006. Drushal registered 734 digs, leading the NCAC in digs per set (6.55). Over her four seasons in the back row for the Scots, she amassed a conference-record 3,043 digs, and became just the 10th player in the history of NCAA women's volleyball, regardless of division, to amass 3,000 or more career digs.

Riley solidified herself as one of the premier hitters in the NCAC, garnering her first career postseason conference honor. She was an all-around producer for the Scots, leading the league in kills (447), kills per set (3.85) total points (572.5), total points per set (4.94). Her 447 kills are the fourth-most in Wooster single-season history, giving her 1,076 kills headed into her senior season. In addition, Riley led the Wooster defense at the net, recording 38 solo blocks and 75 block assists for 0.97 blocks per set, the second-highest total in the league, and paced the Wooster service game tallying 50 service aces.

Stepping in right away to lead the Wooster offense, Beal dished out 1,095 assists, the fifth-highest total in single-season school history, for a 9.12 assist per set mark, the second-best mark in the league, while smacking down 101 kills on 301 attempts. Behind the service line, she was second on the team with 33 service aces along with racking up four solo blocks and 31 block assists at the net.

Concluding a solid all-around four-year stint, Earle was a force both offensively and defensively for Wooster. She finished second on the team with 268 kills, giving her 703 for her career. Earle was second on the squad with 476 digs and a 4.00 digs per set average, good for seventh in the league. A versatile player, she racked up 1,488 career digs, moving her into third-place in the Wooster laurels.

Overnight Fire Rips Through Apartment Complex

Posted on: 4:03 am, March 21, 2012, by Ted Achladis and Katie Meyers, updated on: 06:57am, March 21, 2012

NORTH ROYALTON, Ohio — Residents of a North Royalton apartment complex experienced a rude awakening early Wednesday morning as fire quickly spread through their building, Fox 8's Stacey Frey reports.

The blaze broke out just before 3 a.m. inside the Spruce Run Apartments at 13293 Spruce Run Drive in North Royalton. That's located in between State Route 82 and the Ohio Turnpike.

Crews from the North Royalton Fire Department, Parma Fire Department and Strongsville Fire Department responded to the scene. As of 6:30 a.m., firefighters were still there putting out hot spots.

A spokesperson for the North Royalton Police Department tells Fox 8 News that all apartment occupants made it out of the building safely. Frey reports that a ladder was used to rescue one couple.

The city's fire chief says that his department's investigation is just beginning, but it looks as if the blaze started on the second floor before spreading onto the third floor and into the attic. Flames could be seen shooting out the roof of the big complex.

The chief adds that there was initial concern regarding spillover into nearby apartments, but crews were fortunately able to contain the fire to one-half of the one building.

A cause is not yet known.

Columbia still on right track

By TERRY GOODMAN
C-T Sports Writer

Watergate is a thing of the past.

The first 20 years of Columbia High football, also, has past. Thank goodness for both.

Columbia compiled a 45-125 football record in its first 20 seasons for a meager .265 winning percentage. Up until 1974, the Raiders hadn't won beans, let alone many games.

BUT, THINGS have changed. In 1974, nine victories. Last year, seven more. This year, Columbia's first championship?

It's possible. For the third straight year, the Raiders are legitimate Inland Conference title contenders. And if Columbia DOES win its first league crown, it'll be coach Rick Kunkle's first one, too.

This is Kunkle's initial high school head coaching test.

"I'm new to coaching in this area, but our coaches seem to think that Buckeye and Firelands will be the teams we'll have to beat," Kunkle said during yesteday's morning workouts.

"We have 12 good seniors, excellent leadership and fine strength in the offensive backfield," he said. "But the biggest question is how quickly the kids will adjust to a new system."

Last year, Columbia ran the Power-I offense and used a 6-2 defense.

Under the new head coach Kunkle, the Raiders will shift with a two tight end attack, while going with a 5-3 defense.

"WE LACK depth and speed, but we have size," Kunkle said. "Our best size is in the backfield though, not on the line."

Heading the Raiders attack are quarterback Scott Shirley, and backs Roger Yost and Craig Ross — all seasoned starters.

"Yost could be tough to stop if he gets going," Rick noted. "The best thing about this team is their good attitude and excellent discipline."

Kunkle is getting a slow start because he was hired just two weeks ago. However, he quickly noted a few tough performers who'll snatch starting roles.

THE COACH likes tackle Joe Smith, center Bob Serina and guard Scott Pick Smith, who may play both ways, will be joined on defense by middle linebacker Cliff Allen.

Fifteen lettermen return, but much of the 39-man squad consists of underclassmen. But with a low number of key injuries, Columbia should continue its current two-year trend of playing winning football.

Kunkle is assisted by Tom Fragasse, Jim Waldecker, Chuck Rimer and Ed Bak.

Raider fall teams make winning a habit; Yost gets grid MVP

By JEFF JONTZEN
C-T Sports Writer

COLUMBIA STATION — Nothing can replce success on the field to make an awards banquet enjoyable, and that was the case with each team represented at Columbia High School's Fall Sports Banquet at the school cafeteria last night.

The varsity football, freshman football, varsity girls volleyball and varsity golf squads all had winning records in either conference or in overall competition.

Raider football coach Rick Kunkle's squad was 4-2 in the Inland Conference, good for third place. Despite losing its first two games, the team ended with a 4-6 overall mark and had a shot at a .500 season going into the final game.

ROGER YOST

ROGER YOST, Columbia's senior halfback, was named the team's Most Valuable Player. Yost led the Inland Conference in scoring with 52 points while rushing for 870 yards and catching 23 passes.

Other special award winners were Bob Serina, the True Grit Award; Harry Lawrence, Most Improved Player; and Craig Ross, Most Underrated Player. All special awards were by vote of the players.

Another award was presented to Inland Conference first-team members Yost, Cliff Allen and Scott Shirley. The three were then joined by Joe Smith for the co-captain awards

Kunkle, in turn, was presented with a large plaque from the team, with smaller plaques going to assistant coaches Jim Waldecker and Tom Fragasse.

KUNKLE HAD special praise for his assistant coaches — Waldecker, Fragasse, Ed Bak and Chuck Reimer. He also cited the support of Superintendent Dr. Donald Hagen, Principal John Breese, Booster Club President Fred Shirley and trainer Hank Gaughan. The support helped Kunkle, who is in his first year as Columbia's head coach.

Bak and Reimer made awards to the freshman team, which finished 4-1 in the conference and 4-3 overall.

Freshman cheerleading numerals were presented by Miss Carol Mayer and varsity cheerleading awards were presented by Miss Cindy Chemlik.

Three special awards were voted by teammates to members of Columbia's varsity volleyball team, which finished with an 8-5 record. Connie Patton was named Most Valuable Player while Cheryl Holmes won the Spiking Award and Diane Gosselin received the Best Server Award. Awards were made by coach Joan Needham, who predicted another good season next year from her young team.

GOLF AWARDS were presented by coach Bob Roberts. Roberts' team finished with a 5-4-1 mark. Bob Abbey was toastmaster.

Wolverines anxious to get another taste of victory

Elyria West must have liked the taste of last Saturday's victory because the Wolverines are eager to try for another helping.

They'll get their chance tomorrow night against a 3-4 Columbia team.

West hasn't exactly compiled a super record either, going 2-3-1 to date, but coach Bill Hewitt's squad landed a haymaker on Margaretta in their last outing, 53-0.

The offense, barely visible for four games, rushed for more than 400 yards, led by Greg Jones and Robert Woolbright.

Having sophomore Jim Smola at quarterback helped, too.

"We just executed," Hewitt said of the Margaretta game. "The execution of the line was great. They stayed with their blocks and the backs hit the hole. We eliminated our mistakes. That's what we'd been looking for.

"Our backs hit the hole quicker, too. Smola gets to the hole quickly (for the handoff) and that's speeded up our whole offense.

"The kids are high — coming off a victory like that," Hewitt added. "They can't wait until Saturday. Maybe this is a sign of things to come. Teams are not going to be able to key Jones. We've got good running balance and we're working on our passing. Jim has a good arm."

RECORDS

Elyria West (2-3-1)
Oberlin, 23-18
Avon Lake, 6-22
Port Clinton, 0-6
Huron, 0-6
Clyde, 8-8
Margaretta, 53-0

Columbia (3-4-0)
Edison 13-14
Brooklyn, 7-22
South Amherst, 22-7
Firelands, 7-24
Keystone, 19-0
Avon, 7-13
Buckeye, 6-2

HEWITT IS NOT looking past Columbia, a team with good personnel.

"We're back on the right track now and we're taking our games one at a time," Hewitt said. "Columbia is about our size. They're quick and have a good quarterback (Scott Shurley). He has a very quick release and he's a good runner.."

Columbia showed a single wing offense along with its regular T against Keystone a couple of weeks ago, so West has an extra offense to try to defense.

"Sometimes a coach will do that to give other teams something to worry about," Hewitt said. "I don't know if that's the case here, but we're preparing for it. I think we'll be ready for it."

The Raiders have an excellent back in Roger Yost who has scored seven touchdowns, is averaging five yards a carry and is the team's leading receiver.

Craig Ross and Bob White, who share the other running back post, have each run for 200 yards so far, but coach Rich Kunkle is still concerned about his team's offense.

"We've settled down a bit and our defense has really come on since the Firelands game," he said. "But we have to score more than we have been. We've only had two touchdowns in the last two games."

Fumbles have plagued the Raiders the past two weeks. They've had seven of them and lost six. The only one they recovered was for a safety in last week's 6-2 win over Buckeye.

Defensively, Columbia will have its hands full trying to contain Jones who ran for 191 yards last week and is over 800 yards for the season.

Columbia delays hiring of park, cemetery help

By RUTH BROSCHK

COLUMBIA — Applicants or summer park and cemetery mowing and road work were interviewed at last night's township trustee meeting.

Action on hiring help was tabled until the regular trustee meeting April 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the town hall to enable all of the trustee members to be present.

ROWLAND BARTTER was absent from last night's session.

The six applicants for park and cemetery mowing were Bill Thompson of LaGrange, Mibalo Danilovic, Al Dumas, Glenn Johnson, Brian Mace and Mitch Babin of Columbia.

Greg Mortus of Olmsted Falls was interested in summer road work employment and Bill Pence of Columbia said he would like permanent employment with the township.

IN OTHER business last night, the trustees:

— SAID a 20-foot wide drive-way pipe is the minimum required for use on township roads

— WILL ASK the township road crew to remove the hump at the intersection of Folley and Columbia-West River roads which could be a safety hazard.

— WERE INFORMED the date for the small engine and the antique motor show sponsored by the Kiwanis has been changed to June 11 and 12 to avoid a scheduling conflict at the Columbia Park.

COLUMBIA — A seventh inning rally fell short for Columbia as it was defeated by visiting Independence, 6-4, on Monday.

A fifth inning home run by Tim Urwin of Independence put his team ahead, 6-2. Columbia made a two run comeback in the seventh, but came up three runs short.

Columbia's record fell to 0-4, while Independence improved to 2-3.

Youth movement going at Columbia

By ROBIN INNES
C-T Sports Writer

COLUMBIA STATION — Rick Kunkle, Columbia High's football coach, may sound like a broken record when he gives his assessment of this year's Raider football team. But he has a good reason for repeating himself. Just about every position on the team is affected in the same way.

Although Kunkle may not like it, youth has taken over at Columbia.

"We are an extremely young team," Kunkle said. "We have 17 sophomores on the team compared to seven seniors and 10 juniors. Needless to say we are inexperienced."

THE INEXPERIENCE that Kunkle talks of is clearly evident in the offensive backfield. The Raiders have five candidates for the fullback and tailback jobs and two more vying for quarterback. But of those seven only three have lettered.

Kunkle explained the effect of having to insert untried players into the starting lineup. Quarterbacking was the example he used to explain his predicament. Bob Serina and Jerry Wood are the Raider flingers.

"Time will tell for both candidates. They both can throw the ball. The problem is that they have never thrown it with people coming after them. We will just have to wait and see," Kunkle said.

Prime targets for Raider aerials will be Pat Mangan, Brian Mace and Lance Hanchey. Both Mangan, a senior, and Mace, a junior lettered last year. Mangan led the team with 16 receptions while Hanchey may be the fastest player on the squad.

BESIDES receivers, a good offensive line is also needed to establish the passing game. But again the younger players must fill big holes.

"We were hurt bad by graduation," said line coach Jim Waldecker. "We will have a lot of young linemen. I think we are bigger and stronger than were were last year. If the young kids can develop, the offensive oine could be one of stronger points."

Columbia schedule

Oct. 29 — at Elyria West
Nov. 5 — at Lutheran West*
Nov 11 — at Brookside
* — denotes conference game

"Depth will be a big problem," Kunkle added. "It is hard to teach two sophomores the same job at the same time."

The large number of young players will be a big factor in determining the Raiders' offensive strategy.

"We will go with whatever works for us," Kunkle predicted. "We will take things slow and make sure we get it right. We had a lot of success running off-tackle last year. Buckeye was the only team to stop us defensively. Our dive plays also worked most of the time."

Because of the untested offense, a lot of pressure is on the defense. An encouraging note for the Raiders is that the defensive unit seems to be able to cope with pressure. The front line has size and experience. It is backed by a talented group of linebackers led by Tim Ward, who was named to the All-Inland Conference second team last year.

"Defense must be our strong suit," Waldecker said. "We may not score a lot of points, but we will be able to stop people."

Besides Waldecker, other members of the Raiders coaching staff are Chuck Reimer, end coach, and offensive and defensive backs coach Tom Fragasse.

"Never give up; never surrender!" Lynn Babin
LIVING WITH NECK & BACK PAIN

In nursing school, Lynn Babin was taught that "pain is what the patient says it is, not what you think," and the spunky mother of three believes every medical professional should adopt the same attitude. After enduring several injuries that left her with chronic and often severe pain, Babin found she was forced to become her own pain management advocate.

"In 1997, I fell while running and subsequently had major reconstructive knee surgery," Babin explains. "Two weeks later, I fell headfirst down a full flight of stairs while wearing my leg brace, suffering multiple fractures, lacerations and hematomas, but most significantly, neck and back injuries. The following month, while stopped at a red light, I was rear-ended and suffered shoulder, head and neck injuries. Ten years, three knee surgeries, a left shoulder and rotator cuff surgery, two foot surgeries and several abdominal surgeries later, I deal with chronic pain in my ankles, knees, hip, back, shoulder and neck. I wear braces on both legs."

Babin's injuries forced her to leave her position as an Intensive Care Unit nurse, and currently, she travels three to five days a week for her job as a regional clinical research associate. Babin wears braces that can be removed easily at security checkpoints and keeps a travel pillow with her for neck support. She receives a one-hour massage every week to help with spasms and has regular appointments with a chiropractor, orthopedic surgeons and several specialists and physical therapists. When her muscles cramp, Babin uses heat to help with the discomfort and turns to ice packs when her joints swell.

"I have averaged at least one surgery a year since my accident," Babin says. "My coping first revolved around my children. I think that in and of itself provides such strength and courage. I have always been a fighter and I guess in my heart of hearts I would never give in and become an invalid no matter what it took.

"For over a decade now, I have been fighting doctors and family members who just do not understand how chronic pain affects one's life and who seem to be of the opinion that we should just 'snap out of it,' and get on with our lives," Babin says. "After a while, you begin to believe it and start giving up. I, like many others suffering from chronic pain, considered suicide on several occasions. No one knows how hard it is to get out of bed every morning. Due to several wonderful individuals in my life, I did not give up and I force myself each and every day to move my painful joints and get out of bed. My best advice comes from one of my favorite movies of all time, Galaxy Quest, and is 'Never give up; never surrender!'"

Description:
This database contains more than 3 million marriages in Ohio between 1970 and 2007. The records from 1971 aren't included because they aren't available from the Ohio Office of Vital Statistics. This is a collection of abstracts that were created with limited information for filing purposes. The information can then be used to find the marriage certificates at the individual county probate courts. The records contain the name of bride/groom, birth year, county of residence, county of license and marriage date.

Herods dominate youth superstar competition

Three Herod children won in their respective age groups in the recent youth superstar competition, sponsored by VFW Post 1079, the Ladies Auxilary and McDonald's.

Boys Hylan and Raymond and one girl, Lashelle, won championships.

Other winners were a tie in the boy's 5-6 age group between Billy Grant and Kevin Childs; Lori Johnson in the same age group; Eric Allgood in the 7-8 group; Dawn Wiser in the girl's 9-10 group and a rout by Ellen Borowy in the 11-12 girl's parings.

Lashelle Herod and Borowy were the most dominate competitors in the classic, which was held at the Elyria Park and Recreation Center. Lashelle won five of her six events, including the softball throw, obstacle course, 50-yard dash and the basketball shooting contest. He failed, however, in the standing long jump event.

Borowy won five of her seven events, not placing in only one event — basketball shooting.

Every champion won at least two events, except for Grant and Childs in the well-balanced 5-6 year-old competition. Grant won only the baseball throw, while Childs copped the long jump.

Three Columbia Station girls win poster contest

The milk promotion poster contest, open to area sixth graders, was won by three students from the Columbia Middle School, Columbia Station. All are students of Mrs. Helen Walkden

Winners were Becky Young, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Young, 15483 West River Rd.; Holli Babin, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Babin, 16510 Marks Rd.; Cathy Jeremiah, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jeremiah, 13516 Janell Dr., all of Columbia Station.

Sponsored by the Lorain County Dairy Boosters, the contest drew 35 entries. The newly formed organization is part of a state group organized for the purpose of promoting milk and dairy products

CONTEST JUDGES were Lorain County Commissioner Jeresmo Keron, William Lund, Norwalk, member of Purebred Dairy Cattle Association; Linda C. Ausman, Cuyahoga County Extension, home economics.

Winning posters will be entered in the state contest which is being sponsred by the Purebred Dairy Cattle Association.

"PROMOTION OF dairy products is important because although total production of milk is up, consumption of milk and milk products, especially by children is decreasing on an alarming scale," said Kelly Walkden who is the advisor for the Lorain County Dairy Boosters.

Winners received gift certificates from the Dairy Barn, Wellington, George's Tin Roof, Amherst, and Stencils, Wellington. They also received ice cream from Elyria Dairies, as did the other contestants.

Banding together

These marching band members might represent rival schools, but they are ready to drop the competition for a night capped by a 400 students marching together. The six marching bands will perform Saturday beginning at 8 p.m. at the 27th annual Lorain County Parade of Bands Marching Festival at Avon High Stadium. Representing the six schools are, in back, left to right, Todd Forbush, Midview; Dan Forthofer, Avon; and Anna Baker, Keystone. In front are Patty Stanchak, Clearview; Holli Babin, Columbia; and Trish Heiland, Firelands. Admission to the program is $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for students. In case of rain. it will be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. (C-T Photo by Bob Bailie.)

Columbia drops first

Columbia-Lutheran West
COLUMBIA STATION

Consistent play by Lutheran West allowed the Longhorns to hand Inland Conference foe Columbia its first loss of the season Wednesday night, 15-12 and 15-11.

The Raiders rallied from a 10-1 deficit in the first game before tying the score at 12-12. In the second game, Columbia held a small lead in the early going. Later, the two teams were deadlocked at 9-9 before Lutheran West held 11-9 and 12-11 leads enroute to the win.

Holli Babin paced the Raiders with nine points.

Columbia, 5-1 in the circuit and 9-1 overall, was at Independence for another Inland match today. The Raiders return home Monday to entertain Brooklyn in league play.

Lutheran West took the junior varsity contest, 7-15, 15-5, 15-0.

Columbia-Buckeye

COLUMBIA STATION — Columbia defeated Buckeye, 15-10, 12-15, 15-5, Thursday night to capture the Inland Conference Western Division crown with an 11-2 record.

Leading server for the Raiders was Lisa Cain with 14 points. Teammates Jackie Mohnkern and Melissa Carl added 10 and seven points, respectively, to the winning total. Mohnkern had a string of nine straight points during the crucial third game.

Columbia coach Pat Hershey praised Holli Babin for her spiking efforts and lauded Melanie Carl for the saves she made.

In addition, Hershey cited Cathy Holmes and Melissa Carl for their setting and was pleased with the performance of Michelle Peeple, who stepped in when one of the Raider starters was injured. Player of the Game honors went to the entire team.

Buckeye won the junior varsity match, 15-12, 15-3.

Columbia, 15-2 overall, will play Avon on Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Oberlin Class AA Sectional Tournament.

Midpark

Holli Morgan is the fifth head volleyball coach at Midpark in as many years, so please excuse her if she is just getting to know the players.

Morgan, in her first stint as a varsity head coach, will lead the Lady Meteors in search of their first win since 2005.

"I'm excited about my first high-school coaching job," said Morgan, a Middleburg Heights resident. "We are learning about the team and what positions the girls will play."

If it is any consolation, Morgan has her niece, former Lady Meteors multi-sport standout Megan Earle, to help bridge the gaps caused by numerous coaching changes.

"We are going to be very young," said Morgan, herself a first team all-North Coast Athletic Conference choice while at Denison University. "We've had some long practices and I've been pushing them, but the kids are holding strong."

The Lady Meteors have only one senior on this year's roster, go-to player Allison Czaplicki. Junior team members are Laura Cappetto, Julie Clawson, Natalie Heineke and Stephanie Litke, while sophomores on the roster include "Smiling" Sammy Ginley, Dre Hales, Chelsea Pegler and Niki Pomnean.

"This is a new team, and it will definitely be an uphill battle," Morgan said. "But, we've already shown that we can work hard and give the effort. I think we'll hold our own."

The Meteors open Aug. 25 with a tri-match at Vermilion, followed by an SWC tilt on Aug. 28 at North Olmsted. The Galaxy opener is Aug. 30 in a league date with Avon Lake.

Midpark High School girls soccer team hopes to take the next step

Published: Wednesday, August 17, 2011, 11:41 AM Updated: Wednesday, August 17, 2011, 11:45 AM

STEVE KURUCZ/SPECIAL TO SUN NEWS

Midpark's Sam Smith, right, is slated to start for the Lady Meteors' girls soccer team this fall.

The Midpark girls soccer team has been hovering around the .500 mark for the last two seasons.

This year, head coach Jalal Ighneim is hoping his squad takes that next step this fall.

"Our strengths seem to be in our team chemistry," said Ighneim. "In girls sports if you don't have chemistry you can not have success. Our girls really care about each other and have fun together. We are also excited because in the past we have felt we were too young to really be competitive but this year we will have four seniors, seven juniors, five sophomores and two freshmen. With this balance in age our girls now know what it takes to be successful."

The Lady Meteors finished 5-7-4 last season and finished around the same mark in 2009 with a 6-8-2 record. They lose six due to graduation and return 13 on the team.

Seniors looking to start this season are sweeper Sid Morgan, center back Brooke Morgano, wing Brittany Walling and striker Casey Bound.

Starting juniors on the roster are fullback Sam Smith, wing Nicole Bito, striker Amanda Morgano and goalies Kristen Chippy and Sam Thompson. Sophomore Kaitlyn Mazzola will start at full back, Katie Bainbridge at attacking midfield and Tianna Moody at holding midfield.

Congratulations on being selected as an Alternate to attend the 2011 USL Super Y-League Olympic Development Program National Camp. Your outstanding contributions on the field with Cleveland Internationals this season led to your identification as one of the top players in your birth year, and among the top 2% of players in the Super Y-League. This camp represents an elite group of players coming together to display their soccer talent and work ethic to collegiate and national team scouts. Your ODP nomination is a tremendous achievement that is highlighted by your invitation to participate with a select group of the top players from the Super Y-League at the ODP National Camp.

Your attendance at the ODP National Camp means you will be placed in an intense training and competitive environment that is designed to identify the exceptional players in attendance. The staff at the ODP National camps will be headed by USL National Technical Director, Peter Mellor, and will include members of the US National Team staff, outstanding collegiate coaches, W-League coaches, WPS coaches, and nationally recognized Super Y-League coaches. This provides the players with a unique opportunity to compete against other elite players while showcasing their talent in the presence of an influential coaching staff.

The ODP National Camps will be taking place at the renowned IMG Academies in Bradenton, Florida on the following dates:

February 24 - 27, 2011 – 1994/95 Boys, 1996/97 Boys
March 3 - 6, 2011 – 1994/95 Girls, 1996/97 Girls

Please take the time to review the ODP National Camp details on our website: www.superyleague.com. We strongly encourage all players to begin research on their travel arrangements and all additional concerns prior to completing their registration at our 2011 SYL ODP National Camp Details and Registration website: http://supery.uslsoccer.com/OlympicDevelopmentProgram/ODP/index_E.html. Registration must be completed before Tuesday, January 18, 2011. Spots are limited and are reserved on a first-come-first-serve basis and after the registration deadline your spot will not be guaranteed, so please be sure to register immediately. In addition, if you are unable to attend you will need to contact Kate Thibault to decline your nomination at 813-269-1346 or kate.thibault@uslsoccer.com. All questions that are not addressed on our website should also be directed to Kate Thibault at the above points of contact. Participants will be receiving a comprehensive registration packet in January, which will provide a detailed itinerary of the ODP National Camp program and will further explain the exciting process of attending camp.

Again, congratulations on your success this season and we look forward to seeing you in camp.

All the best,

Kate Thibault

Gannon Women's Soccer Team's First Five Minutes Enough During 2-1 Victory at Shippensburg

Senior Jordan Rickan's second goal of the season off a corner kick 1:42 into Saturday's contest got the Lady Knights off and running.

SHIPPENSBURG, Pa. – The Gannon women's soccer team scored twice during the first five minutes and then held off Shippensburg while playing down a player for over 50 minutes en route to an important 2-1 Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) victory Saturday afternoon.

Saturday's contest was another in a long string of important matches down the stretch for the Lady Knights. Gannon entered the weekend ranked fourth in the NCAA Division II Atlantic regional rankings. Shippensburg is tabbed 10th in the region.

In addition, Gannon maintained its hold on a possible PSAC quarterfinal home match. The top four teams host conference quarterfinal matches Tuesday, October 30. The Lady Knights are now tied with California (Pa.) for third place with 25 points, holding a one-point lead over fifth-place East Stroudsburg for the final home match after Saturday's action.

Gannon produced all the scoring it would need during the first five minutes. Jordan Rickan (Kenmore, N.Y./Kenmore West) started the flurry with her second goal of the season 1:42 into the affair. The senior defender headed in a corner kick from Mani Brueckner (Valencia, Pa./Mars Area) for the first score. The play resulted in Brueckner's school record 12th assist of the season.

Sidney Morgan (Middleburg Heights, Ohio/Midpark) extended the lead to 2-0 with her first career goal three minutes and one second later. The true freshman took a pass from Michelle Genetin (Navarre, Ohio/Perry) and scored into the bottom left side of the net.

It was up to the Gannon defense after that. The Lady Knights were forced to maintain the lead shorthanded after a red card was handed out with 5:42 left in the first half. The squad managed to get to halftime with a 2-0 advantage, before having to fight off the final 45 minutes down a player.

Gannon Team Notes

- Six seniors will be honored during Wednesday's pregame - Brinkman, Sarah Deck, Jenny Jergel, Kara Prokopchak, Mary Reilly and Rickan.
- Gannon has won 11 matches for the first time since the 2008 squad went 11-6-2.
- The Lady Knights have won 11 matches in a season for the fifth time in school history, needing one victory to tie the school record of 12 set by the 1998 and 1999 teams.
- Gannon ranks seventh among all NCAA Division II programs in shutout percentage, blanking 10 of its first 15 opponents.
- Seven different Lady Knights have scored game-winning goals - Valloud, Brueckner, Genetin, Kaitlyn Kissell, Justine Rodrigues, Sidney Morgan and Rickan.
- Brueckner ranks No. 2 among all NCAA Division II players in assists and assists per match. She ranks 18th nationally in points per match.
- Brueckner's 12 assists this season represent Gannon's single-season assist record.
- Brueckner's 30 points equal the fourth-highest single-season total in school history, sitting nine points shy of the school record.
- Brueckner's nine goals and Valloud's eight goals equal the eighth and 12th-highest single-season totals in school history, respectively.
- Sarah Geffel's six shutouts equal the fourth-highest single-season total in school history and are only two shy of the school record.

No. 8 Gannon Women's Soccer Team Falls to East Stroudsburg on Penalty Kicks in PSAC Quarterfinals

Dan Teliski, Director of Athletics Media Relations
11/1/2012 8:14:00 PM

ERIE, Pa. – East Stroudsburg out-scored Gannon 5-4 in penalty kicks following a scoreless Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) quarterfinal match Thursday afternoon at Gannon University Field and eliminated the third-seeded Lady Knights, advancing to the PSAC Women's Soccer Final Four hosted by California (Pa.) this weekend.

Gannon controlled the majority of the match according to the shots chart. The Lady Knights held a 6-2 edge during the first half, a 16-5 advantage during the second half and took all five shots during the two overtime sessions. The final total was 27-7 in favor of the Lady Knights.

However, Gannon managed to get only 10 of those 27 shots on goal. East Stroudsburg goalkeeper Brittain Wagner turned away all 10 of those shots.

Gannon best's scoring chance arguably came during the 19th minute when the Lady Knights were able to create a one-on-one with Wagner, but the shot rung off the right post.

Gannon U vs Stroudsburg U
Nov 1 2012

Head coach Colin Petersen's club had two solid chances during the waning minutes of regulation. Maddi Buckham (Copley, Ohio/Copley) ripped a quality shot that appeared to be heading top shelf in the 83rd minute, but Wagner barely tipped the ball over the bar. Moments later in the 86th minute, Gannon controlled a loose ball that Wagner was unable to pull in. But with Wagner out of the goal and only an East Stroudsburg defender left in front of the net, the ensuing shot sailed wide.

Statistically, the match ended in a tie following two more scoreless periods in overtime. The deadlock forced a penalty kick shoot-out to determine which team would advance to the conference final four.

East Stroudsburg earned the honor after converting all five of its penalty kicks. Mani Brueckner (Valencia, Pa./Mars Area), Justine Rodrigues (Georgetown, Ontario/Georgetown District), Kaitlyn Kissell (Erie, Pa./Villa Maria Academy) and Sidney Morgan (Middleburg Heights, Ohio/Midpark) all scored for Gannon. The deciding play was Wagner's diving save on the Lady Knights' fourth attempt.

Gannon, ranked eighth in the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) national rankings and third in the NCAA Division II Atlantic regional rankings, moved to 13-3-2 overall with the postseason tie. The verdict snapped a four-match win streak. East Stroudsburg, tabbed sixth in the latest regional rankings, is now 10-4-5 overall after posting its second victory of the season against the Lady Knights.

Head coach Colin Petersen's club now awaits word on a possible NCAA Division II Tournament bid. The NCAA Selection Show is scheduled for Monday, November 5 at 7:30 p.m. on http://www.ncaa.com.

GANNON - Junior goalkeeper Brittain Wagner made 10 saves in the first 110 minutes, then turned away a penalty kick in the shootout as East Stroudsburg University advanced to the PSAC women's soccer semifinals for the first time since 2008 with a 5-4 PK shootout victory at Gannon on Thursday afternoon.

After a scoreless regulation, the Warriors buried all five of their penalty kicks, and Wagner made the save on Gannon's fourth PK. Sophomore back Kelly Clark gave ESU a 4-3 lead after Wagner's save, and redshirt junior back Carly Collins buried the game-winner to end the contest.

ESU (10-4-5), the tournament's No. 6 seed, takes on No. 7 Slippery Rock (11-5-2) on Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at top seed California. Slippery Rock knocked off No. 2 West Chester, 2-1; California advanced with a 1-0 win over IUP; and No. 4 Edinboro beat Kutztown, 2-1, to set the Final Four.

Gannon (13-3-2) had most of the chances in regulation and overtime, holding a 27-7 advantage in shots, but Wagner had a number of key saves. The biggest came with just under 10 minutes left in regulation when she deflected a point-blank shot by Maddi Buckham over the crossbar.

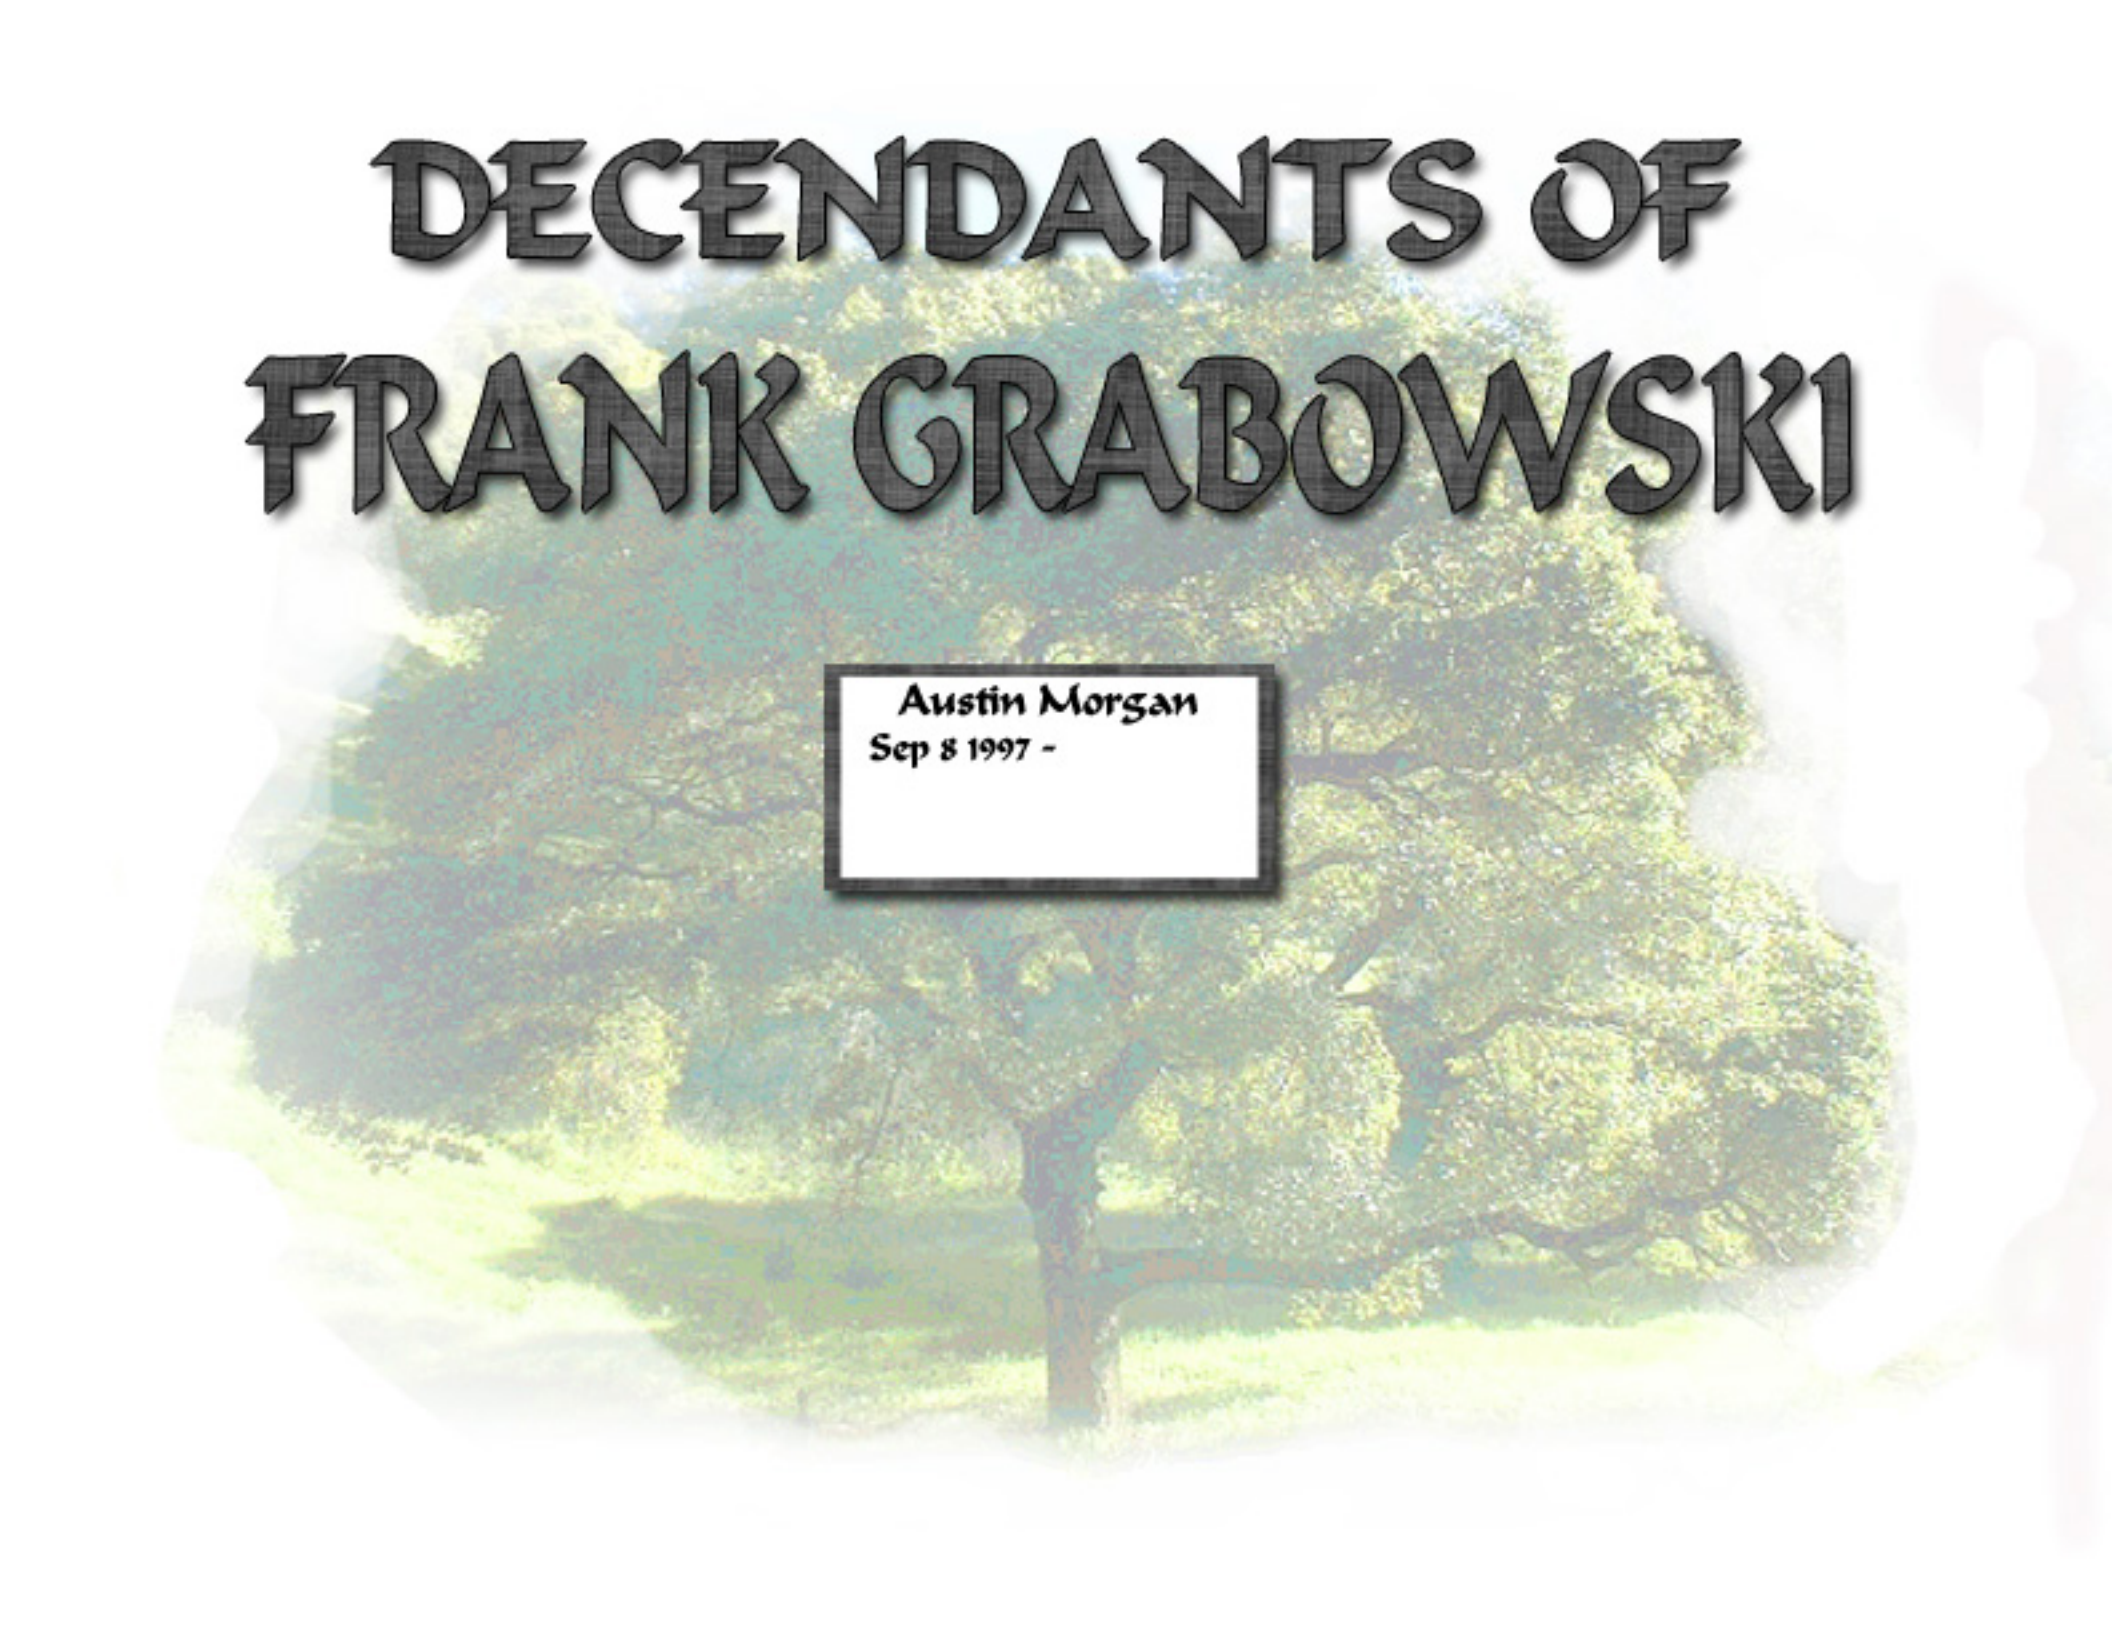

In the penalty kick shootout, Gannon (shooting first) and ESU both converted their first three before Wagner's save. Senior midfielders Marissa Spitler, Cree Julian and Ashley McKenna took the first three for the Warriors, followed by Clark and Collins.

ESU and Slippery Rock tied, 1-1, in their first meeting on October 6 at Eiler-Martin Stadium. Freshman forward Madeline DeVico scored the game-tying goal for ESU in the 59th minute after Slippery Rock's Shelby Ward scored in the 16th. Wagner had seven saves, SRU's Dana O'Neill had four saves and the Rock had a 16-13 edge in shots.

PENALTY KICKS - Gannon, then ESU
1 - Mani Brueckner (made), Marissa Spitler (made)
2 - Justine Rodrigues (made), Cree Julian (made)
3 - Kaitlyn Kissell (made), Ashley McKenna (made)
4 - Sammy Valloud (SAVED), Kelly Clark (made)

Dear Austin,

On behalf of the entire Midpark High School staff, I would like to commend you on your accomplishment in earning one of the highest academic recognitions presented by Midpark High School, the Midpark Student of the Month! The Midpark Student of the Month is a distinguished honor with each academic department selecting one student who best represents their academic area of study both academically and in character.

I commend your commitment as you have been recognized by the Science Department as one of their best and most competent students. It is an honor and privilege for us to recognize you with the Midpark Student of the Month Award. In earning this recognition, you have demonstrated the qualities and leadership characteristics that will lead to future successes in your life, achievement of your goals, and realization of your dreams.

Midpark High School has been rated as "Excellent" by the Ohio Department of Education and that success is due in part to your efforts in responding to the challenges and opportunities provided to you at Midpark High School. Your commitment to academic achievement and excellence combined with the choices that you have made serve as an inspiration to your peers and staff at Midpark High School thus enabling us to better achieve our vision of 'Inspiring Excellence'.

You are invited to a recognition luncheon on Wednesday, March 21, 2012 at 12:00 in the Midpark Media Center. A list will be forwarded to all teachers so they are aware that you will be leaving class that day. I want to commend you on your commitment to academic success setting yourself apart by the pursuit of academic excellence and the attainment and application of wisdom and knowledge.

Sincerely,

Mr. Michael Rhamy
